THE BROOKLYN SCANDAL.

The Examination of Mr. Cleveland Concluded.

Moulton Again on the Witness Stand.

NEW YORK, April 23, 1875.

Nearly all who presented themselves to day at the Brooklyn City Court room, and bearing tickets of admission to the great scandal trial, were accommodated with seats. The cross-examination of Mr. Cleveland was then continued. He was then shown a paper and said: I gave this power of attorney to Mr. Shearman since Thursday of last week; when I testified before I said I did not know where it was because it had gone out of my hands; I went from Boston to the White Mountains the 4th of September; the committee had made its report the 28th of August; before going to Boston I heard the second statement was in preparation by Moulton; this paper was the subject of discussion between Beecher and myself before I left the White Mountains; I heard this report was and also that it was in reference to the charge of blackmail against Moulton; in my visit to Boston, under instructions from Beecher, I was to hear no explanation in regard to these charges until what Moulton and Tilton had said would be withdrawn absolutely; my visit was simply to hear what Redpath had to say, or any of the gentlemen; I was sent to see what all the telegraphing to him meant. Beecher said he would have nothing to do with any accommodation or settlement until Moulton and Tilton withdrew absolutely all they had said against his moral character. I did not expect to meet Tilton or Moulton in Boston; in case Redpath's explanation was satisfactory I was to take back the answer to Beecher at the White Mountains.

Witness was asked whether, on being given written authority by Mr. Beecher to act for him in the matter, would he have returned with an answer to Beecher? He replied: No person but Henry Ward Beecher would have written such a letter.

Counsel objected to the answer and asked it to be striken out, which was ordered by the Court.

The question was repeated, and the witness said: I would have returned to Beecher with the answer. I did not expect to meet Moulton at Boston, but I thought I might meet Tilton. I went to Boston as a matter of courtesy to Redpath, Governor Claflin and other gentlemen who telegraphed. I had nothing special to do with regard to

The Charges of Blackmail Against Moulton.

I do not recollect that anything in particular was to be done with regard to withdrawing the charge of blackmail against Moulton. There was a conversation about it, however, before I went to Boston. I did not understand that I was to withdraw the charge. This power of attorney was handed me before I started for Boston, and I did not examine it until I was on the way there. I did not sign any papers at Boston, nor do I remember showing the paper to any person. Redpath and I did not discuss the limitation of my power by the paper. I understood from Redpath that General Butler and Moulton were to see him the next day.

Mr. Morris read a dispatch from Redpath to Beecher, asking him if he could receive and Mr. Pryor read the dispatch in Latin, afterwards translating it into English. It was from Redpath asking Beecher to come in the name of the Father immediately and avert a terrible calamity, and that he had through three years of silence procured the opportunity which he held only for a day, and asking if he should not be frustrated with hesitation.

Mr. Morris read a dispatch from Beecher to Redpath in English, conveying the information that Cleveland would meet him at the depot, that he had been given a letter of authority on his behalf, and that he (Beecher) could not leave until morning, if at all.

Witness continued: Beecher told me about these telegrams on the evening of Semptember 3d, and I left for Boston next morning. On that night there may have been an allusion about my going to Boston next morning. I do not remember a dispatch being sent on the previous night that I would go in the morning with full documentary authority. This letter of authority was handed me when I was getting into the stage to the cars. On the 31st of December, 1873, I severed my connection with the Christian Union. I entered into a partnership with Hurbart & Co., paper manufacturers. When I entered that firm I offered to supply Ford & Co. with material, which was declined. I did not tell Ford I could ruin the Christian Union, or that I knew the secret of Beecher's relations with Mrs. Tilton. I know Samuel Belcher. The draft of was drawn up by Winslow, and was then gone over before the committee. The witnesses examined were not sworn.

Mr. Beach here asked Mr. Shearman for the minutes of the testimony taken by the stenographer, and the latter replied that he would see about it.

Witness was handed the book of the proceedings of the Investigating Committee. He was pointed to a part, which he was asked if he remembered. He turned around to the Court and said: Your Honor, in my present state I cannot analyze the report of the committee word by word, and I therefore ask the consideration of the Court.

The question was repeated, and he said he did not remember. I have a recollection about hearing of a paper shown to Dr. Storrs in 1870, saying Tilton's wife had informed him that Beecher had solicited Mrs. Tilton to be a wife to him, with all that that name implied. The committee did not consider that Moulton's statement came up as evidence. I do not recollect that the committee used four letters in Moulton's statement in making up the report. Two or three days before the committee made its report Moulton's partner received a dispatch saying he was willing to go before the committee. The report had not then passed from the committee. I took no part in the proceedings when the report was made. I voted on it. I do not know if any other member of the committee was present then. I do not remember an interview with Mr. Tilton in the Golden Age office about the publication of the Bacon article, and in which I advised him not to reply to it. I said to Tilton in my store that if he wanted to make a direct issue he should write to the church, and not to such persons as Dr. Bacon or any other person outside of the church, and that this would be of dealing with the matter. Tilton did send a letter to the church on May 4th, 1874, where it was discovered by the Examining Committee, but no action was taken on it.

The Court here took the usual recess, and Mr. Morris stated that in half an hour more he would finish with the witness.

After the recess Mr. Cleveland resumed the stand, and testified: In the fall of 1874 the West charges were brought to my mind. I had no knowledge of them until that year, when I read of them in Tilton's statement. This is the first I knew of the character of them, but I knew them in a general way when they were preferred. I understood they were charges against Tilton in a specific way. I was present when they were disposed of, and heard the report of the committee read. In the discussion I learned they were charges against Bowen and Tilton of Slandering Their Pastor.

I understood the charges to consist in slandering the pastor's moral character in relation to his relations with women. I do not know if Mr. West was called before the Examining Committee, but he was not called before the Investigating Committee. I do not know why he was not called, or why I did not suggest his name as the author of these charges. The letter from Tilton of August 3d, declining to appear again before the committee, was sent before I went to the White Mountains. I remember Shearman's card in the Independent, which was prepared by Shearman and Tilton to clear the latter from any charge of aspersions cast on him by the Bacon letter. This finished the cross-examination.

Re-direct Examination.

Mr. Beecher never authorized the publication of the tripartite covenant. He made an effort to prevent it. I simply heard in 1873 that West had preferred charges. I was not a member of the Examining Committee then, but am now. This committee never make known any matters before them to any members of the church. At a meeting of the church in October, 1872, nothing was said in the report about these charges. When Tilton spoke of them I do not remember that he mentined West's name. When I became a member of this committee its papers were not placed in my hands, nor were the West charges talked about in my hearing. In the examination in my sick room, my state of health was not so good that I could remember what was asked me. On June 26th I did not mention the names suggested by Mr. Beecher as members of the Investigating Committee, Shearman or General Tracy. These names would have occurred to every member of Plymouth church who would be called on to suggest names for such a purpose. Beecher then submitted to these gentlemen, called in the names of Wm. M. Evarts, George Wm. Curtis and Wm. Cullen Bryant, to act as a committee in this matter. Evarts had then no relation to Beecher as counsel or otherwise that I know of. White was not present until the 10th of July, when Tilton was before the committee. I received legal advice to the effect that if the Investigating Committee went on with their labors without having a ratification of the Examining Committee, they would be

Liable to be Sued for Libel.

This referred to the publication of the testimony, and not the taking of it. I had no knowledge that West was possessed of any knowledge of the charges against Beecher. We had used every effort to get documents and statements from Moulton prior to the receipt of his dispatch of August 26th, and the committee had their report completed at that time. The report was submitted on the 28th of August, when I had correspondence with Mrs. Ovington. I had no knowledge that Mrs. Tilton was going to leave her home. I never entered into any design to get her to leave her home.

Re-cross Examination.

The legal advice I received related simply to the publication of the testimony, and not to the simple announcement of this committee. I did not mention the names of Bryant, Evarts and Curtis in my testimony before. When my testimony was taken I was dressed, lying down in my room. I was able to move about my room. My state of health is such now that my mind is affected and my remembrance defective.

This was all the questions put to witness, and he was allowed to leave the stand.

Moulton Again on the Stand.

At this point Judge Fullerton and Moulton entered the court-room, causing some little commotion among the spectators. Moulton then took his place on the witness stand for further cross-examination, and said: I know Samuel W. Partridge since 8864, but do not remember a conversation about Tilton's reasons for writting the "Life of Victoria Woodhull."

"The witness was asked if he said to him at Tilton wrote this life to put himself at the head of the Spiritualists of the country, th there were more Spiritualists than Congregationalists.

To this question Judge Fullerton objected, and an argument ensued between Messrs. Evarts and Beach on the subject, and the latter argued that it was wholly immaterial to the issues of the case.

After some further argument Judge Neilson ruled that he would take the answer. The question was repeated, and witness said: The question is involved. I knew no such thing, and said no such thing. I told Partridge, however, that the Spiritualists of the country did outnumber the Congregationalists. I do not know what suggested this remark. We conversed about Mrs. Tillon, Mr. Tilton, Mr. Beecher and Mrs. Woodhull. I had no conversation with Partridge about Tilton's reason for writing the "Life of Mrs. Woodhull." I will swear that if I did have such a conversation with him, I never said that Tilton told me so, and did not tell Partridge that.

Moulton was then allowed to leave the stand.

Mr. Partridge Recalled.

Partridge was then recalled by the defense, and he was asked what Moulton said to him about Tilton's reasons for publishing the Woodhull life. The witness said Mr. Moulton told me—

Here Mr. Beach objected, and the answer was ruled out by the Court.

On further cross-examination by Mr. Beach, witness said: This conversation occurred shortly after the publication of the pamphlet. I think it was in the year 1872 that this conversation took place. This conversation was in the office of Woodruff & Robinson in the fall of the year. My duties there were receiving and paying out moneys and making entries in books.

The adjournment of the Court for the day interrupted further cross-examination of this witness.

Proceedings of the Fire Underwriters' Convention.

Investigation Into the Charges for Handling Grain.

NEW YORK, April 23, 1875.

The Charges for Handling Grain.

The State Senate Committee to-day continued their inquiries into the charges for handling grain at this terminus. One receiver of grain stated that the charges for handling grain, which were yesterday given as three and three-quarter cents per bushel, had been incorrectly computed, and gave the following schedule: Re-weighing grain, three-fourths of a cent; elevating, three-fourths of a cent; storage, three-fourths of a cent; lighterage, one and a half cents; re-weighing for foreign shipment, three-fourths of a cent; extra charge for delivery on board ships, from five-eighths to three-fourths of a cent; and for screening, one-fourth of a cent. He thought handling grain ought to be done here as cheaply as at Buffalo.

The Fire Underwriters' Convention.

The National Board of Fire Underwriters resumed this morning their annual session, with an even smaller attendance than yesterday.

Among the documents presented was a report of the Committee on the Origin of Fire, Patents and Gas. The report recommends the encouragement of inventors who are studying the best means for the prevention or extinguishing of fires. The number of fires from incendiarism, the use of friction matches, illuminating and other oils, it is stated, increases yearly. Nearly one third of all the ordinary losses which are paid arise from incendiarism. Out of 1,396 fires which occurred in this city in 1872, 439 originated from friction matches. An increase in the cost of insurance, in the judgment of the committee, would drive many such hazardous articles out of use.

The committee considers the question of oils an important one and worthy of compulsory legislation, and recommends that a proper form of law be prepared which shall fully cover the necessities of the case, and be presented to the Legislatures of all States. In granting policies, the privilege of using lighter petroleum should be ignored. In gas machines, the necessity of insisting that all parts of gas machines, except service pipes, shall be placed at a sufficient distance outside of the premises to obviate all chance of accident, is considered to be very apparent. The committee, in conclusion, offered the following:

Resolved, That it be a rule of this board that no permit be granted for lighting with vapor any of the light products of petroleum when the generator, blower or any part of the apparatus in the gas machine (so-called) is located in or adjoining premises.

The report was accepted and referred to the Executive Committee.

The report of the Committee of Co-operation for the West was read, and on motion of Mr. Smith, of Chicago, was accepted and referred to the Executive Committee.

George T. Hope, of the Continental of New York, at the request of delegates, addressed the Convention on the subject of aggregate winds and their influences on different cities, so that the National Board might be enabled to more properly protect itself in taking hazards.

Mr. Hope stated that he had placed himself in communication with the Bureau of the Signal Service, with a view to ascertaining if it was possible to obtain a tabulated schedule of the velocity of wind over various cities of the Union, and was informed they could. He therefore thought the National Board should take some action on the matter, and consequently offered a resolution, which was unanimously adopted, that a committee of five be appointed by the Executive Committee to correspond with the United States Signal Service Department upon the subject, and to tabulate the information obtained.

The following Executive Committee was elected for the ensuing year: Stephen Crowell, D. A. Heald, John W. Murray, Charles Platt, A. G. Baker, D. R. Smith, D. Lockwell, L. B. Hall, George P. Cram, George L. Chase and Henry Kellogg.

A long discussion took place as to whether the Royal Insurance Company of London should have more than one vote. The agents of the company claimed that they had fourteen votes, inasmuch as no one agent of the company has authority to vote for the other. The chairman ruled that the Royal Insurance Company was entitled to but one vote, in which he was sustained by an overwhelming majority.

A protest was entered against the Brewers and Maltsters Company voting, which caused a brief discussion. One of the directors of the company stated that should the right of voting be denied, he would hand in his resignation. Notwithstanding, this protest was sustained by a large majority.

The question of the Royal Insurance Company of London was again brought up, and the special agent, Mr. Bedell, was asked to cast his vote in order to obviate any ill feeling between his company and the Board. This he, however, declined to do, on the grounds that he had no authority to cast a vote for the company, and was only empowered to vote individually.

H. A. Oakley was re-elected President for the ensuing year, and L. G. Hendee Vice President. The latter refused to serve, and G. L. Chase was chosen in his stead.

The special committee to whom was referred various reports, offered the following recommendation, which was adopted: That the Treasurer of the Board be an ex-officio member of the Executive Committee; that the Statistical, Legislative and Taxation Bureaus be made one, to be known as the Statistical Bureau, and that a secretary be appointed to the management of the same, and be instructed to devote all his time in promoting the interests of said bureau; that it is deemed unadvisable to make a reduction in the present schedule of rates, but that the committee prefer leaving the matter entirely in the hands of the Executive Committee, with full power to act; that the rates on buildings be fixed at two and one-half for three and four for five years; that the number of supervising agents of the board be increased at the discretion of the Executive Committee; that general and special agents be requested to extend their cordial and hearty support to the National Board, and keep it constantly advised of all events transpiring at a distance by which its interests might be affected; that the expense of local boards be dealt with, as suggested in the reports of the Executive Committee and general agents.

The recommendation of the committee that all agents found in any way violating the rules of the board be punished by fines caused a lively discussion. Finally it was resolved to include officers of companies as well as agents, and the proceeds of such fines to be paid into the Bureaux of Statistics, Construction and Fire Prevention, and to be used towards their maintenance; that all paid surveyors be subject to the directions of the Executive Committee, to be called upon when not otherwise employed; that the Executive Committee be empowered to make appointments in the fire department, salvage corps and water supply; that the subject of form of policy be committed to the Executive Committee, with full power to act.

Mr. Perry's resolution that a member of the National Board was fully entitled to go into any local board, was brought up, and caused considerable discussion. The resolution was finally referred to the Executive Committee.

On motion of D. R. Smith, it was resolved to suggest to the Executive Committee the propriety of adding two more members to their body, one to represent Chicago and one Boston.

On motion of Mr. Platt, the Executive Committee was advised to add a member from the Southern States to their body.

The Chairman was, at his request, authorized to reconstruct the Standing Committe as soon as practicable.

After granting President Oakley leave of absence, and authorizing him to represent the board while in Europe, for the purpose of obtaining any valuable information on insurance matters, the Convention adjourned.

Northern Pacific Railroad.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Northern Pacific Railroad to-day the resignation of George W. Cass, as President, was accepted. An election was at once held to fill the vacancy, and Charles B. Wright, of Philadelphia, was chosen unanimously. Mr. Wright has been a director for four years of the Northern Pacific Railroad, and chairman of its finance committee.

Suicide.

Captain Alanson P. St. John, until recently General Manager, Superintendent and Treasurer of the Peoples' Line of steamers on the Hudson river, committed suicide to-day by shooting, while sitting in the barber shop on board the steamer St. John.

THE CROPS.

Reports from Nearly Four Hundred Towns in the Northwest.

CHICAGO, April 23.—The Inter-Ocean to-morrow will publish reports from nearly four hundred towns in the Northwest, giving accounts of the condition of the crops. A summary of the reports shows that in Missouri wheat and oats are badly eaten by grasshoppers, and fears are entertained that in the large breadth planted, grain will be destroyed by them. Fruit is uninjured.

In Wisconsin, winter wheat is slightly injured. Spring wheat is now being sown. The fruit is somewhat injured.

In Indiana, wheat has been badly injured by the cold weather. Rye and barley will also be short. Oats will not yield more than half a crop. Corn planting is delayed on account of frost.

In Kansas, the season has been favorable. The large areas of wheat are in fine condition. Fruit looks well.

In Michigan, the season is backward. Wheat has been badly injured by frost, and in many localities farmers are turning it out. Oats and corn, as well as most fruits, are killed.

In Nebraska, the prospects for all grains and fruits are flattering.

In Minnesota, the season is backward. The average breadth of spring wheat is sown. Winter wheat is uninjured. Small fruit promises well.

In Iowa, little more than an average amount of spring wheat is sown, and will yield well. Little winter wheat was sown, and that is uninjured. Oats and barley are badly injured. Fruits will be an average yield.

In Illinois, the prospects for winter wheat are very discouraging. Where large areas are usually sown there will not be over half a crop. Many wheat fields are being plowed for corn. Spring wheat and oats are damaged; also rye and barley. Fruits are generally destroyed.

OMAHA.

The Railway Blockade Gradually Being Removed—A Number of Breaks Repaired.

OMAHA, April 23.—The following is official: Five trains from the Green River break, loaded with west-bound passengers, &c., got into Ogden last night. Four trains, with east-bound passengers, &c., will arrive at Green River to-night, unless something now unforseen occurs. One train of first-class passengers and two of emigrants, bound through, leave here to-day. They will have to transfer at the Green River break, which, it is expected, will be reduced to two miles to-day. The water here is still falling. The wash-outs reported on Echo Canon have been sufficiently repaired to admit of trains passing over them with safety.

☞The report that an engine and two cars had been ditched at Church Buttes is a mistake. No cars or engines have been ditched. Harnes Fork is rapidly rising, and trouble is apprehended. It is spanned by a bridge at Granger Station.

The following is just received from the Superintendent at Green river: Everything between Carber and Ogden is in passable condition. We expect to get to the bridge over the Big Muddy, between Hampton and Church Buttes, this afternoon.

General Superintendent Clark is hopeful, but frankly says if the water rush on them in the Echo and Weber rises and on the line between Evanston and Bryan, communication is likely again to be interrupted.

ST. LOUIS.

Testing Arkansas Anthracite Coal—The Crop Prospects.

ST. LOUIS, April 23.—A very interesting test of anthracite coal found in Johnson county, Arkansas, was made to-day on the steamer Robert Sample, which steamed up and down the harbor during the experiment. The coal produced intense heat, made steam rapidly and abundantly, produced very little ash, and competent judges pronounced one ton of it to be equal to two tons of Pittsburgh coal. A large number of prominent manufacturers and other gentlemen witnessed the test, and all expressed great satisfaction.

Information from nearly all sections of the State regarding the crops is to the effect that about three quarters of the fall wheat is destroyed. One-half of it will be plowed up and corn planted. There is only about one-half the usual average of oats, and the peach crop in Missouri and Arkansas is nearly destroyed. Apples and pears are not injured.

THE MINERS' WAR.

A House Attacked by Strikers—One of the Assailants Killed.

HAZELTON, PA., April 23.—A party of miners made an attack upon the house of J. Morrison last evening. F. Louderbaum, who was stopping with Morrison, fired upon the attacking party, killing one of them instantly, when the raiders dispersed.

WILKESBARRE, April 23.—The miners at Hillman's mines yesterday voted against going to work.

Grasshopper Eggs Frost-Proof.

To the Editors of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

It was generally hoped, and extensively believed, in the West, that the intense cold of last winter would have destroyed the grasshopper eggs; they, however, appear to be frost-proof. I was informed by relibale parties in Sibley, Nicolett and Blue Earth counties, Minnesota, that they had, in the latter part of March, taken some of the earth in which the eggs were deposited and kept it for some time near the fire, when the insects showed signs of life. They then immersed the earth, with the insects in water, and exposed it until it was hard frozen, and then placed it near the fire, and the grasshoppers again showed signs of vitality. They also informed me that as soon as the snow disappeared, and the sun became warmer, many half-grown grasshoppers made their appearance. These were supposed to be survivors of those hatched out late last autumn. As these insects deposited their eggs in vast quantities in the central part of Southern Minnesota, their progress next summer, will be watched with intense anxiety by not a few residents of the West.

European Steamship Arrivals Yesterday.

A dispatch received at Max Schamberg's European Steamship, Exchange and Telegraph Office, at No. 163 Smithfield street, announces the arrival of the steamer California, at New York; Australia, at Moville; Nederland, at Philadelphia; State of Louisiana, at Greenoch.

Procrastination, the Thief of Time.

A very fine and fashionable stock of cloths, cassimeres and vestings will be found at the merchant tailoring house of B. Tiegel, No. 53 Smithfield street, which, as all know, in the hands of Tiegel, can be manufactured into suits of first class style. Prices reasonable and fits guaranteed. Call at once, leave your order, and procure a suit which shall afford you real pleasure, comfort and enjoyment in the wear.

TERRIBLE DISASTER.

A Gloom Thrown Over River Circles,

Three Steamers Burned at New Orleans.

The John Kyle, Exporter and Bodmann.

A Large Number of People Lost.

Estimated at from Twenty to One Hundred.

A Daughter of Captain Reese Among Them.

Other Pittsburghers Supposed to be Missing.

NEW ORLEANS, April 23.—About 4 P. M. a fire broke out in the blacksmith shop of the steamboat John Kyle, which was lying at the foot of Poydras street. The Kyle lay between the Lessie Taylor below and Exporter above. The Bodmann lay above and next to the Exporter. Soon after the alarm was given the tug boat Ella Wood came up and commenced throwing water on the burning vessel, but without effect. Captain Hutchinson, of the Kyle, was standing on the front deck when the fire broke out. He promptly notified all on board to leave, as it was apparent from the first that the boat could not be saved. Capt. Hutchinson thinks every one on board the Kyle was saved. Wm. Brown, chief clerk, who opened the safe, took out the money and papers, was the last to leave the Kyle, which had in the meantime been set adrift. In escaping he was and severely, if not dangerously, burned over the face and hands. His eye-lashes and moustaches were singed off. He, however, jumped into the river and swam ashore. He was at once taken to a hotel, where he was attended to by a physician.

Capt. Hutchinson says the cabin of the Kyle was enveloped in flames in less than two minutes from the time the first alarm was given. When the Kyle was cut loose the eddy drifted her up stream, and those on shore, seeing the danger, cast off the hawsers by which the Exporter and Bodmann were tied up. This act proved disastrous. The Kyle drifted against the Exporter and Bodmann, and all three boats drifted into the stream. So rapid was the progress of the flames that

The Exporter Took Fire the Moment the Kyle Touched Her.

The people on board the Exporter, having no other refuge, jumped on the Bodmann. This boat, in less than a minute after the Exporter, also caught fire, and the three burning vessels drifted together into the stream, where they were soon burned to the water's edge. Many persons who had gone on the Exporter and Bodmann as spectators were on board when the boats drifted into the stream, and had to jump overboard. Some of them were rescued, but a larger number are believed to have been lost.

The Number Lost

are estimated at from twenty to one hundred.

The commander of the United States steamer Kansas promptly sent out his boats, one of which rescued thirteen persons. The jobbing tug-boat made no effort to rescue those on the burning boats.

There was an excursion party from Cincinnati and Pittsburgh, many of whom, it is feared, were lost.

The Bodmann arrived this morning, and had discharged most of her cargo. The Exporter was to leave this evening, and had about four hundred tons of freight on board, all of which was lost.

Among the lost is a daughter of Captain Reese, of the Exporter.

Captain Shinkle, of the Bodmann, was much burned about the face and hands. A son of Captain Shinkle is reported among the lost.

The Exporter was owned by James Rees, Sr., of Pittsburgh, and was valued at $45,000. The John Kyle was owned by Capt. John Kyle and P. S. and W. F. Davidson, and valued at $60,000. The Chas. Bodmann was owned by Capt. O. P. Shinkle and others of Cincinnati, and was valued at $75,000. All are supposed to be insured in western offices.

On board the Exporter was Capt. Reese, the owner, from Pittsburgh, who, with his family and a number of friends from that city, were on a pleasure excursion. The ladies of the party were all ashore except Mrs. Reese, her daughter and one other lady. Mrs. Reese and the other lady were saved, but the daughter was drowned. It is impossible to-night to give names or ascertain who are lost.

The hulls of the Exporter and Bodmann were towed across the river to Coyles coal yard, while the Kyle floated down a couple of miles and sunk.

The Secretaryship of the Interior.

False Rumors Disposed Of.

Investigating Mail Contract Frauds.

WASHINGTON, April 23, 1875.

The Secretaryship of the Interior.

General B. K. Cowen, Assistant Secretary of the Interior, authorizes the statement that the recent publications, to the effect that the resignation of the Secretary of the Interior had been asked by the President on account of corrupt practices in the department, or for any other reason, and that the Assistant Secretary was cognisant of the facts, are entirely without foundation. The statement that General Cowen had been consulted in regard to the succession is, he says, equally untrue; and, further, that he knew nothing whatever of the statements until the day after they were telegraphed from here by several correspondents, and he is confident that said statements are void of truth. All the heads of the bureaux of the Interior Department authorize a similar statement so far as they are concerned.

No matters of general interest or importance were brought before the Cabinet meeting to-day, and nothing whatever was said by any one in regard to changes in the Cabinet on the question of new appointments to fill any vacancies that may occur therein.

The Cabinet session to-day was attended by all the members. All bureau officers of the Interior Department, headed by Assistant Secretary Cowen, called on the President previous to the meeting of the Cabinet, for the purpose of refuting the statements that Secretary Delano had been in the habit of interfering with them in the decision of cases. Each bureau officer substantially asserted that in no instance had Delano interfered with them in public business, and no decisions ever made by any of them had been overruled by the Secretary without full consultation and mature deliberation. The President, in reply, remarked that while he was glad to meet them personally, their visit and explanations were entirely unnecessary, as he ever had the utmost confidence in Secretary Delano, and his confidence in his integrity and consistent official department remained unimpaired.

Investigating Mail Contract Frauds.

The investigation of the mail contract frauds is still in progress by the Postmaster General and Second Assistant Postmaster General Tyner, who this morning discovered a fraudulent bid among those for routes in Louisiana. About six clerks have already been discharged for complicity in the frauds, and it is understood that at least a dozen more are implicated. Judge Tyner states that he is determined to make a thorough investigation if it takes all summer.

The Tichborne Case.

After the transaction of some unimportant business, Dr. Kenealy rose, and moved that a royal commission be appointed to investigate the circumstances attending the Tichborne trials. In a powerful speech in support of his resolution, Dr. Kenealy alluded to the growing dissatisfaction at the result of these trials and the manner in which they had been conducted by the bench. Nothing short of a royal commission of enquiry would content the people of England, who were convinced that justice had not been done. He stated that he had received many letters from America to the same effect. The discontent had grown into a torrent, which was pouring over the land. The late Ministry partly owed its downfall to its conduct in regard to the Tichborne case. He asserted that he had positive proof that Chief Justice Sir Alexander Cockburn in society, while the trial was in progress, said he would give the claimant fifteen years' imprisonment.

He spoke in severe terms of the Pittendreigh forgeries, and stated that the claimant was unable to call more witnesses for lack of funds. The penalties for contempt of Court had been directed against one side only. The witnesses were browbeaten and the partiality of the bench was potent throughout the proceedings.

Kenealy declared he had sacrificed himself to his sense of honor and duty, and had been irretrievably ruined in his profession. He believed the motion before the House would never be renewed in its present form. It was impossible to predict the result if this commission should be refused. The defeat of the motion would spread dismay throughout the country.

Dr. Kenealy spoke three hours. He was followed by Mr. Whalley, who seconded the motion.

Sir Richard Bagallay opposed the appointment of a commission, for which there was not the slightest ground of justification. The observations alleged to have been made by the Chief Justice were grossly misunderstood and misinterpreted.

Mr. Whalley remarked that the House seemed to be interested in the suppression of an inquiry which would lead to the exposure of a Catholic conspiracy against the Tichborne claimant.

Sir Henry James, who was Attorney General under the last Gladstone Ministry, denounced the motion as an attack on the jury system, and declared the commission asked for unprecedented.

Mr. Disraeli said Dr. Kenealy's speech was a thrice told tale. The charges of misconduct made against the Chief Justice were entirely unsupported. Alluding to Dr. Kenealy, he regretted that a talented man, under a hallucination, had destroyed his own reputation.

John Bright reviewed the evidence. He could not but agree with the jury in their verdicts.

The motion of Dr. Kenealy was then rejected by a vote of one hundred and thirty-three noes to one aye.

INDIA.

A Sovereign Deposed.

CALCUTTA, April 23.—Lord Northbrook, Viceroy of India, has issued a proclamation deposing Guikwarr, of Barada, and declaring him and his issue precluded from all the rights appertaining to the sovereignty of the country, and compelling Guikwarr to select a place for himself and family in British India. The Viceroy says this measure is based, independently of the recent trial of Guikwarr, upon his notorious misconduct, gross misgovernment and incapacity. Furthermore, the restoration of Guikwarr would be detrimental to the interests of Barada. The Viceroy will select a member of another branch of Guikwarr's family to reign.

FRANCE.

Obituary.

PARIS, April 23.—J. M. Kerros, Consular Agent of the United States at Brest, is dead.

A Commissioner to Examine the American Educational Systems.

M. Wallon, Minister of Public Instruction, has designated Judge Cambert as special commissioner to examine and report on the American systems of education. M. Cambert will visit Washington and New York, and also attend the Philadelphia exhibition, in connection with which he will receive special instructions from Ministers Decazes and Demeaux.

CUBA.

Rumors of a Fight with Rebels.

HAVANA, April 23.—An unofficial report is in circulation that a severe fight has taken place at Las Cruce, on the Cienfuegos railway, the headquarters of Captain General Valmaseda, and that seventy rebels were killed and their entire force routed.

GERMANY.

Ordered Out of the Country.

BERLIN, April 23.—The police authorities of Posen notified all the Ursuline Sisters in that district who are not natives of Germany that they must leave the country within two months.

Pittsburgh Insurance Company.

This company, which was incorporated in 1851, and which has steadily gained in public favor and confidence, until it has attained to and filled all the requirements of a first class institution, has removed and located in comfortable and commodious quarters, corner of Wood street and Fourth avenue. With officers of integrity and business talent, such as Henry Lloyd, President, James Gorden, Vice President, and Hillis McKown, Secretary, the Pittsburgh Insurance Company can not do otherwise than succeed and prosper. An income for the last year of one hundred thousand dollars proves that this company has a strong hold in the public confidence. A net surplus of over one hundred thousand dollars proves the financial caution and judiciousness with which its affairs are managed. For a safe, sound and reliable insurance company, parties need seek no farther than the "Pittsburgh."

The Fish Season.

The fruit may be frozen in the bud, but the fish did not feel the effects and are as plentiful at Pulpress' headquarters No. 45 Diamond market as ever. Among the varieties of which, may be found, some very fine and delicious qualities of Potomac Shad, and fresh Potomac herring, Lake Salmon, White Fish, Bass, Trout, Rock Eels Halibut and a hundred other varities, of a freshness and purity such as can only found at the stand of Pulpress. Pulpress has been too long in the business not to know how to please you. Dealers in city and country can order from him in whatever qualities they please with the assurance that the quality, variety and price will give full satisfaction. The best of shad at very low figures.

Cash, Shoes, Cash, Boots.

The business man who buys in large quantities for cash, and sells for cash, has a great advantage over him who buys on time and sells on time. Any person with half an eye can see this. And knowing that Mr. R. Taggart No. 129 Federal street, Allegheny, a dopts the cash system, it is obvious that he can give his patrons the benefits of losses and bad debts which the credit system necessarily entails. And this he does to the very letter, as no Boot and Shoe House in either city can compete with him in cheapness of price. His boots and shoes are not cheap because they are of an inferior grade, but cheap because they are of the best qualities and sold lower than the cheap grades of other houses.

Fine Dress Suits

made to measure by James Bleakly, No. 60 Smithfield street. Prices reasonable and fits warranted.

Dr. Spencer,

No. 254 Penn avenue, desires the public in general, and his numerous patients in particular, to distinctly understand that he does not compete with cheap Dentists, and trusts that persons will discriminate between a competition for cheapness and excellence of workmanship.

Take Some Home.

To-day you should go to No. 69 Fifth avenue and procure from Gildenfenny some of his new books and late periodicals at his reduced prices. History, poetry, fiction, science and fashion all find a tongue on the counters of 69 Fifth avenue. The latest weeklies and monthlies on hand.

Neat and Fashionable.

A full line of fashionable and stylish cloths, cassimeres and vestings at James Bleakley's, No. 60 Smithfield street.

Sound to the Core.

The United States Bank, corner of Fifth avenue and Wood street, is as sound as a dollar. It pays six per cent on time deposits, deas in gold and silver, United States bonds, foreign exchange, and transacts a general banking business.

THE LATEST NEWS.

Condensed Telegrams from All Quarters.

—State Treasurer Parker, of South Carolina, has been committed to the Columbia jail in default of $250,000 bail.

—Jno. Burk shot and killed Bill Johnson in Hart county, Ky., on Friday morning, in a quarrel about a horse trade.

—Some of the Memphis insurance companies are heavy losers by the burning of the steamers Exporter and Kyle at New Orleans.

—Gen. Garfield, of Ohio, Governor McCook, of Colorado, and a number of others leave Chicago for San Francisco this morning, via the C. B. & Q. R. R. on a special car.

—On Friday night Schofield's large cotton mill in Manayunk, Pa., was totally destroyed by fire. The building was of stone, five stories high, recently built, and occupied by Dawson & Shaw. The loss is heavy.

—Two colored murderers, named Bunch and Hardee, who were to have been hung at Charleston, S. C., on Friday, were respited at noon by the colored Lieutenant Governor, in the absence of Governor Chamberlain from the State.

—A defalcation has been discovered in the Western Union Telegraph office in Philadelphia, and John R. Heiner, chief clerk and late Superintendent, and D. H. Bates, have absconded. The officers state that the defalcation will amount to between five and six thousand dollars.

—Black River Bill, a noted character from Red Wing, Minn., who attended the St. Thomas Assizes to testify in the case of Fitzsimmons, the alleged murderer of Dr. Minham, has been arrested in London, Ontario. He was a room-mate of Fitzsimmons, and said he heard Fitzsimmons talk of the murder in his sleep.

—In a vote on the question as to whether Chicago shall become incorporated under an act of the General Assembly of Illinois, approved April 10th, 1872, and known as "the general incorporation law," sixteen out of twenty wards voted against such incorporation. This insures the defeat of reorganization in the city offices.

—C. P. Joplin, second clerk on the steamer Mary Ament, was drowned at the Memphis wharf on Friday by a skiff becoming entangled in the wheel of the steamer Quickstep, and capsizing. When the accident occurred parties in two skiffs started to his relief, and when one boat was within a few feet of him he was drawn under the barge and disappeared.

—Patrick Andrews, a supposed stranger in St. Louis, cut his throat on the street in that city early on Friday morning. He then walked to a saloon more than a block away, where he offered to make a statement, but being rebuffed by the bar-tender, he lay down in a corner of the room and died before medical aid could be rendered. He had a long scar on the neck just below where he cut it, indicating that he had attempted suicide at some previous time.

Dress Up.

Wait no longer for a Spring suit, in the fear that Winter may return again, as old Sol is now determined to make King Frost take a back seat. And be advised that among the many Merchant Tailoring Houses of the two cities none have a finer, fuller or more fashionable assortment of Foreign and American fabrics than W. Hespenheide & Co., No. 50 Sixth street. They have secured a line of piece goods especially suitable for Spring suits, which they are prepared to make to measure in the highest style of art. With Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings of super-excellent quality, and of the latest styles, workmen of skill and experience, cutters and fitters of first class reputation, and prices to accord with the times, they merit as they are receiving an extensive patronage. Order soon, as first come, first served.

Navigation in Full Blast.

Boat owners and others who may require such appliances as Blocks, Pulleys, and Barge Pumps, can have them ready made or made to order on short notice, at the establishment of Thomas Davage, No. 57 First avenue. To get the worth of your money in the purchase of these articles, and receive full satisfaction in their use and wear, you can do no better than patronize Mr. Davage, as his reputation for the manufacture of these goods of best material and workmanship is second to none.

Cheap as Well as Good

Suits are made to measure of excellent material at prices to suit the times by James Bleakley, No. 60 Smithfield street.

Ornament, Decorate and Beautify.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 115¼.

JOHN HARPER, one of the members of firm of Harper Brothers, died Thursday evening. He was one of the firm that originated and established the house, and ranked among the most prosperous and influential publishers of the world.

THE British House of Commons proposes secret sessions, as a means of relieving itself of the press reports. Rather small business, in view of the fact that the press has been justified so far as supposedly privileged publications were concerned.

IF a would-be critic will do us the kindness to call, we will show him, in short order, that he overrates his skill in grammatical criticism very much. Never assume to be a critic, unless you know what you are at. In nearly every instance, the items criticised are rigidly correct.

IT seems that Secretary Delano, for private reasons, proposed to resign his position in the Cabinet, the intention having been formed a considerable while since, but both he and the President positively disclaim that he has been requested to resign. The rumor was probably started on the basis of the suggestion that he was inclined to resign.

THE Legislative Committee, appointed to investigate alleged violations of its charter by the Reading Railroad, met, and Mr. Gowan, President of the road, being called on for the charter, submitted it, with a protest against the proceedings of the Committee. The papers were received, and the proceedings adjourned for a few weeks. This promises to be a lively investigation.

OUR telegraphic columns give the particulars of a terrible disaster by the burning of several steamboats at New Orleans. In addition to the loss of property the information received points to what is of vastly more importance—great loss of life—and among the victims it is supposed that Pittsburgh has a share. From our present advices, it seems as though it was one of the most appalling catastrophes that has occurred on the lower rivers for years.

THE low supply of water, a few days since, at our water works, is a reminder of the danger we are in, so long as the new works remain incomplete. We could readily have a full supply of water, were those works finished, and thus be prepared for any emergency. As it is, the supply is cut short with alarming frequency, and should a heavy fire break out during this short supply, we would be in a serious strait. More than this, the new works completed would involve an income which would pay interest and something toward the principal of the cost. As it is, this money must be raised by taxation. Yet all this danger, loss, and taxation is the result of Democratic refusal to properly legislate last Winter.

WE have been reminded that the late W. K. Nimick has two surviving brothers. In our mention of his death, we referred to but one. We are not surprised to learn that both keenly feel his loss. He was a man of great attractive force, and uniformly genial qualities. His blameless and kindly life not merely drew closely to him those who knew him intimately, but inspired agreeable relations on the part of those who even met him casually. Yet he was not demonstrative—never obtruding himself, or even joining in conversation when not invited. But a certain candor of manner, and quiet gentlemanliness of bearing attracted attention, and commanded esteem. We are not free to express, as it would seem but wild laudation, the full appreciation we have of his excellent qualities. In perfect balance of mind, and thorough uniformity of excellent qualities, he was a man of unusual interest and merit.

DOES city or country contribute most largely to the immoral element, is a question discussed in a magazine article by Judge Pierce. He argues that the city is as favorable to morals as the country, using the argument that the country people go to the cities to gratify their immoral propensities. While this is, in a measure, true, it does not prove the point made by the Judge. The opportunities cities afford to indulge immoralities undiscovered, lead to much evil that is not generally known; while in the country, any departure from the line of rectitude is promptly discovered, and condemned. Then, too, a crime, or an immorality attracts far more attention in the country than it does in the city. What would, in a country village, be a nine days' wonder, would not attract an hour's attention in a large city. We think an old remark we once heard, is nearer the truth than Judge Pierce's idea. This is, that those who are good in cities are very good, and those who are evil are quite depraved. The reason is, the temptations are greater, and resistance involves stronger traits of character; while on the other hand, those who go astray are led into deep evils. Thus, the idea is that good and evil in cities positively antagonize each other, while in country places, the lines are less clearly drawn.

POPE PIUS IX., infallibility aside, is a genial, kindly spirited old man, fond of receiving visits from such as have occasion to seek his presence. He evidently has a real admiration for our country, as he may well have, in view of the liberality of American Catholics toward him. The New York Herald correspondent, who secured an audience with the Holy Father, records the reminiscences of his visit, not omitting to mention the declining health of the Pontiff. More interesting, in its results, was his visit to Antonelli, who is a politician, and understands very thoroughly the ins and outs of Roman and Italian politics. From his description of the Roman city Council and its purpose to tax the Vatican simply for its water supply, or cut off the water, we judge that they are as keen there to make taxes as they can be here. The Cardinal thinks that the Pontiffs have done enough for Rome to be excused from the tax; and while there is a perennial spring in the Vatican grounds, sufficient to supply it with water, it is proposed to pay the tax, if assessed. Thus it is. Sorrows and bitterness of spirit, petty annoyances and consequent revilings pertain to every relation of life. None so high that they can avoid them, and none so low that they can escape them. Thus is goes.

WE INFER from a dispatch on the subject, that France has never resumed diplomatic relations with Mexico since the retirement of Bazaine's forces, and the break-down of the Maximilian Government. The pride of the French suffered severely, because of the Mexican business, but it seems strange that the Republic should not abandon the traditions of the Empire, and disregard its slights and misfortunes. There are many reasons why it should not hold aloof from that Republic. Community of political interest, sympathy of relation, the interests of trade, and other reasons should operate. Mexico is yet destined to become a great commercial country, and the nations that sustain friendly intercourse will receive the bulk of that trade. The Latin nations of Europe ought to be especially kindly toward Mexico, as possessing kinship of race; yet they turned against her, and sought to despoil her. Really, if there were any hindrances to diplomatic intercourse, they should come from Mexico,—abused, despoiled, and trodden down as she has been. Yet even Juarez was willing to restore amicable relations with all foreign powers, and his successor, President Lerdo, has been of the same kindly disposition. It is an outrage that Europe should stand aloof from her, and we hope friendly relations will be very speedily restored.

THE far-seeing acuteness of the Post is deserving of the loftiest praise. It sifts the utterances of the GAZETTE with prompt readiness, and a sagacity that cannot be too highly commended. Yet in the midst of its refreshing revelations we are informed that these are not all it can tell. It has penetrated our most hidden motives, and gone into our most secret convictions. Really, our neighbor is over-wise. We know nothing at all different from what we have known since the beginning of the Third Term agitation, and all that we said was with reference to a Third Term nomination, considered simply as a political possibility. We were careful to repeat our oft-uttered belief that the President is not a seeker after a Third Term, but, irrespective of this, referred to the elements that would be gathered in Convention, and their tendency. This was in reply to journals that declared that even were President Grant an aspirant for Third Term honors he could not get a corporal's guard to follow him. Whether he is an aspirant for Third Term honors is one thing; but whether it is or is not possible to nominate him is another and very different thing. To belittle President Grant's strength is absurd; but this is distinct from the attempt to impugn his motives. We do not believe he is a Third Term aspirant, and those who say he is, charge him wrongly. And when, on the other hand, it is affirmed he cannot be nominated, another and not less serious mistake is made. He is, we think, strong, but retiring.

CAUSE AND EFFECT.

There is this difference, as a rule, between Republican and Democratic papers: the former criticise their own party when they think it wrong, while the latter conceal their party defects, and magnify those of the Republican party. So as regards party policy. The Republican party has made it a rule to unearth any rascalities that might creep in among its ranks, and punish the offender, while the Democracy have ever pursued the policy of glossing over the evils of their members. The result is, that the Republican party is made to seem worse, from the remarks of its friends, than the Democratic party is from the utterances of its friends. But it has ever been maintained that the Republican party, as a whole, is pure; there are in it, here and there, as in any other party, individuals who are not pure. But, considered as a party, whether as to principles or measures, it is deserving of confidence. The Post, of this city, however, whose political creeds we do not, as a rule, notice, has this to say of the Republican party: "The Radical Republican party has been a party of deceit; and being in full power nearly all over the Union, they for a long time practiced their deceit upon the people with impunity, because they were not understood, and because much of their reckless extravagance and rascality was unknown." There are no specifications to this charge, that we may know distinctly what is meant; but, taking it comprehensively, it is strangely untrue. Indeed, excepting that it is not in power in the country, the remark is peculiarly faithful as descriptive of the Democratic party.

The Republican party came into power when Lincoln became President. Its leading profession was that of hostility to the spread of slavery, and to the breaking up of the Union by means of secession. The Democratic party at the same time professed to worship the Constitution, and favored the Southern seceders. Indeed, those seceders were Democratic leaders. What did the Republican party do? It repressed slavery expansion, and fought for the preservation of the Union. In other words, it illustrated its principles by its action. Was this deceit? The war over, and the Republican party taught the doctrines of moderation and generosity in the treatment of rebels and the reconstruction of the Government. Its apparent interests were just opposite to this. The rank, vicious spirit of conquered rebels, and the implacable hostility of the Democracy taught it that no favor would be gained in that quarter, because of the generosity displayed. Yet who was hung because of rebellion? Who were ever held in prison? What reprisals were ever exacted for the fearful outrages perpetrated on our soldiers during the war, by the rebel authorities? How many ex-rebels are members-elect of Congress, and who made it possible for them to be elected by granting them amnesty? Has not the practice of the Republican party, since the war, conformed to its professions?

Take it in its general attitude at the present. What is it? It favors protection for American industry, the development of American enterprise, honest faith toward the creditors of the Government, and the honest administration of the laws. It illustrates its faith by its practice. Does any man for a moment think that he can be vicious, dishonest, and false, and be protected, because that possibly some injury may come to the party through his exposure? Let the ferreting out of violators of law in the Postoffice Department answer. It is a well known fact, that the discovery of wrong-doing, in any department of the Government, is sure to be followed by exposure and punishment. Thus it has been, and is. This does not tally with the assertion of the Post that it is a party of deceit.

But what is the record of the Democratic party? From the days of Buchanan till now, it has scarcely drawn, as a party, an honest breath. The wicked non-coercion doctrines of that day, in which that party pretended to keep peace while it was really holding the Nation back from crushing traitors till they were strong enough to resist its power, was an instance of most outrageous deceit. Its pretence of patriotism, during the war, while holding peace meetings, and declaring the war a failure, was deceitful to a degree. It meant to aid and encourage traitors while playing the patriot. Its contest against the freedom and enfranchisement of the blacks, and its after acceptance of the situation, and still later repudiation of this acceptance only testify to its general deceit. So of purely political matters. As to honesty in trusts, the Tweed stealings, in New York, were more purely party stealings than any violations of trust that ever occurred in the Republican party. Ours have been individual wrongs, in which there was no party participation. But Tweed's were for party ends,—he and his ring being the chief factors merely. We do not discover, indeed, anywhere, evidence that the Democratic party is otherwise than deceitful. It gained some measure of success last Fall, by a pretence of honesty and patriotism, and celebrated the triumph with the old, exultant rebel yell. So it has been and is. The Democracy, as a party, is the very synonym of deceit.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

PERFECT LOVE CASTETH OUT FEAR. By Katharine Sedgwick Washburn, author of "The Italian Girl," &c. Published by Lee & Shepard, Boston.

This is a love story, in which there is no end of beautiful women and rare men, plenty of money and pleasure, and happy marriages at the last. It is written in a florid style, does not deal in the impossibilities, is full of adventure, and will be eagerly read by those who feed on romance.

TYPES AND EMBLEMS: Being a collection of Sermons Preached on Sunday and Thursday evenings, at the Metropolitan Tabernacle. By C. H. Spurgeon. Published by C. Sheldon & Co., New York. For sale in Pittsburgh by R. S. Davis & Co.

These sermons of Spurgeon show no abatement of fervor or intellectual strength. They are as full of pith and paint and force as any that have ever emanated from the heart and brain of the great preacher. It will be good news to the thousands of admirers of the preacher, that it is proposed to publish a series of his best sermons, as they may be preached from time to time hereafter.

FUNGI: Their Nature and Uses. By M. C. Crooke, M. A., LL. D. Edited by the Rev. M. J. Berkley, M. A. F. L. G. Published by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

This is one of the International Scientific series. It is a book more especially designed for the student. It is profusely illustrated, and, as a compilation of the very latest developments in relation to Fungi, is a very valuable book to the student who desires to pursue his investigations into this interesting branch of botany.

KINDERGARTEN MESSENGER. Edited by Elizabeth P. Peabody. For sale in Pittsburgh by Rev. J. S. Travelli, Fourth avenue.

This is the April number. All who would learn more of this Kindergarten method of instruction will find this a very entertaining and instructive magazine.

PETERSON'S JOURNAL, for May, contains a number of capital short stories and sketches, together with some well-written articles of a discussive character, including another of John Smith's papers about the currency, and one on Pluto. The magazine is well conducted and should be a success.

PERSONAL.

IT is estimated that the proposed trip of the Prince of Wales to India will cost $1,250,000.

"BOSTON" CORBETT, who killed John Wilkes Booth, is at present a hat-maker in a Cleveland manufactory.

THUS far no one has accused any of the parties to the Tilton-Beecher case of kissing Mrs. Morse or Mrs. Beecher.

MARY HARRIS, who killed Burroughs in the Treasury Department about eight years ago, has been removed from the Insane Asylum to Providence Hospital.

BISHOP BEDELL, of Ohio, has written an earnest pastoral letter to the members of his diocese on the inconsistency and sin of attendance at theatres by professors of religion.

SENATOR MORRILL, of Maine, is so ill at Washington as to be unable to return home. His illness is attributed to overwork on the Senate Committee on Appropriations, during the last session.

PRESIDENT GRANT has been invited by the Bunker Hill Monument Association to be present at their celebration on June 17, but has given no definite answer. Gen. Sherman has announced that he will be present.

IT is now said that the recent stories concerning an accident to Donaldson, the aeronaut, was a shrewd advertising dodge, concocted by D. S. Thomas, Esq., Barnum's popular press agent. Shouldn't wonder; it's just like him.

AN amenity of the late municipal election in Cincinnati occurred a few evenings ago, when a solid ivory cane, cut without a break from the tusk of an elephant, was presented by Mayor-elect Johnson to John Robinson, his defeated opponent.

THEY think they have Charley Ross at Letts' Corner, Decatur county, Indiana. Colonel Snelbaker, of Cincinnati, received from J. W. Harris, of that place, Thursday, a letter asking a photograph and description of the great kidnapped.

HERE'S a Yale College ditty: "And if it is a girl, sir, we'll dress her up in blue, and send her out to Saltonstall to coach the Freshman crew; and if it is a boy, sir, we'll put him on the crew, and let him wax the Harvards, as his daddy used to do."

GOV. TILDEN weighs only one hundred and thirty pounds. He is sixty-six, but so comely and engaging that the maidens wish he wouldn't confound plain gold with canal rings. His pocket and cellar are both full, and he is as ready in pulling a cork as in opening his purse-strings.

AFTER concluding his eloquent and patriotic speech at Lexington, General Bartlett was approached by a stranger, who, with tears rolling down his cheeks, said: "General, I am a Southerner. I was a good rebel, but now I am a good Union man, and I only needed to hear such words as yours from a Northern man's lips."

COL. E. M. YERGER, of Mississippi, but for several years a resident of Baltimore, died las Thursday night. At one time he was prominent before the public in connection with the killing of Colonel Crane, at Jackson, Mississippi, for which he was tried by a military commission. For several years since residing in Baltimore he was proprietor and editor of the Evening Journal.

ESTILETTE, the new Speaker of the Louisiana House of Representatives, is a native of the State. He is 42 years of age, a graduate of Yale College in the class of 1857, an ex-rebel, and, generally speaking, a well reconstructed citizen. He was elected to the Legislature as a Democrat. After the split he joined the Wiltz faction, and uniformly opposed any return to the Hahn House as a minority. On the other hand, he earnestly supported and promoted the Wheeler adjustment.

PAROXYSMAL, paternal, sisterly, reconciliatory, and inspirational kisses appear to be as familiar to Mr. Beecher as household words. The honorable defendant, according to his own account, has done a great deal of kissing. He has kissed Mrs. Tilton (sisterly), Mrs. Moulton (inspirationally), Mr. Moulton (experimentally), Mr. Oliver Johnson (unwillingly), Sam Wilkeson (unavoidably), Mr. Evarts (professionally), Mr. Shearman (indignantly), Bessie Turner (fatherly), and Theodore Tilton (reconciliatory).

THE largest maple sugar manufacturer in Vermont, and possibly in the country, is F. E. Ray, of Wilmington, who taps 3,350 trees and sets as many buckets. His average crop of sugar is from four to six tons each Spring, about one-half of which is run into diminutive cakes, while the remainder goes into molasses, which is put up in cans and hermetically sealed. Mr. Ray's annual receipts for sugar and molasses for the past six years have reached from $1,000 to $1,500. The amount of help required in this orchard is seven men, with two yokes of oxen.

THERE is a revival of the former canard that King Alfonso is about to abdicate in favor of his sister, the Countess of Girgenti, ex-Queen Isabella's eldest child and namesake also. This young lady, now in Madrid, where she officiates as head of the boy-King's Court, is in her twenty-fourth year; was married in 1868 to Gaetan, Count de Girgenti, brother of the ex-King of Naples, and became a widow, by his suicide, in November, 1871. She is said to be a woman of no small ability and very decided character. It is added that, Bismarck's consent having been obtained, this lady will marry a Prince of the House of Hohenzollern, who will be created King-Consort, thus realizing the very situation the dread of which induced Napoleon III. to declare war against Prussia, the result of which was the overthrow of the Second Empire.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

A WOMAN who can clean house and not get cross is an angel, or soon will be.

CHARLES C. LEWIS, of the firm of Webster, Lewis & Co., of New York, recently failed, committed suicide on Thursday.

THE paper mill of George Benton & Sons, at Benington, Vt., burned last Thursday night. Loss, $75,000; insurance, $35,000.

ANOTHER of Daniel Boone's rifles has turned up in Salina, Kansas. That makes just 2,784,923 of them with thirteen States to hear from.

THE Cleveland Plaindealer brags that it was "disloyal" during the war, and says "this is a good year for 'rebels.'"—The Post has never yet gone quite that far.

A YANKEE editor tosses up the sponge with the remark, that "It don't pay to run a paper in a town where business men read almanacs, and pick their teeth with the tail of a herring."

A CURIOUS incident happened at Hartford last Wednesday night. Rats invaded the warerooms of a commission merchant and devoured forty canaries out of a stock received on consignment.

A WRITER on dress says: "Short and podgy women ought not to wear belts." What is the use of giving advice in that way? There isn't a woman in the world who would admit, even to herself, that she was "short and podgy."

A DISPATCH from Santa Barbara, Cal., says the schooner sent out to the assistance of the supposed burning steamer reports that a man-of-war passed on Thursday, firing guns in passing. No other information tending to confirm the report of any disaster has been received.

THERE is a telegrapher's palsy. The operators kept very busy find that after some years they are unable to signal certain signs distinctly. They change their fingers and get rid of the trouble—for a time; but these fingers fail, and if the labor is persisted in, the whole arm gives out and the brain becomes affected.

EVEN the babies protest against their mothers having the right to vote. Lucy Stone, while delivering a public lecture in Providence recently, asked: "Shall women leave their children at home and neglect them while they go to vote?" An infant which had been sleeping peacefully, awoke at this precise point, and ejaculated lustily "No-o-o!"

THE State Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of Alabama, met in Montgomery on Thursday. The attendance is larger than at any previous meeting, and much interest is manifested. G. A. Hall and T. K. Cree, of Washington, were present, representing the Executive Committee of the United States and British America.

THE following notice is conspicuously posted over the counter of a savings bank in Clinton Place, N. Y.: "Never stamp a check before presenting it at the bank, but give the teller two cents and ask him to lick the stamp and cancel it. The teller expects to lick all stamps, as it saves buying lunch, and is therefore disappointed when not allowed to do."

MRS. M. H. BURNHAM'S notion of a spring hat: "It won't make much difference, this weather, whether one has a nice Spring hat or a poor one. A little flannel hood lined with camphor and trimmed about the ears with roasted onions for the ear-ache, and rigged with American mustard leaves for face trimming, will suit our neuralgic condition best."

THE Women's Medical College, Philadelphia, announces that two vacant scholarships await applications. These scholarships were endowed by the late Mrs. Dodd and Mrs. Ann Preston. The applicant must have a good moral character, intelligence, and an education to fit her for a medical course; she must be, also, above the age of eighteen and less than thirty.

IN THE Hudson County Court, New Jersey, Frederick Klennen, convicted of stealing funds from the Hoboken Savings Bank, while cashier, was brought up for sentence. Previous to sentence, he was arraigned on eleven indictments for forgery, to which he pleaded non vult. Judge Hoffman then sentenced him to various terms of imprisonment, making in all eighty-four years.

A POODLE DOG belonging to a resident of Detroit lately swallowed a needle and thread which it had found on the floor. For five days it suffered great discomfort, but at the end of that time its mistress discovered the sharp point of the needle, which had worked through the skin of the little creature's throat, and, seizing it, gave it a vigorous twitch and drew it through, with the thread still clinging to it.

MRS. HENRY VAN BUREN, a lady about sixty years of age, living at Kingston, N. Y., committed suicide a few days ago by taking a large dose of morphine. She was a believer in spiritualism, and during last Winter attended a number of seances in Kingston, in which a large number of the prominent men and women of the place were active workers and believers, and the fatal act is said to have been the result of her belief that her suicide was dictated by the spirits.

IN case the Beecher jury should want to know how to get at the sum of damages due to Tilton, they may find a hint in the plan adopted by the jury in a recent case in Scotland, in which a verdict was given against the London Athenæum. Eleven of the jury favored damages, but could not agree on the sum, so they each wrote down privately his own idea of the sum. They added all these sums together, divided by eleven, and gave the result as the amount of damages.

THE total number of accidents reported on all railroads in the country, during March last, was one hundred and twenty-two, whereby seventeen persons were killed, and seventy-three injured. Twelve accidents caused the death of one or more persons, twenty-six others injury but not death, and eighty-four, or sixty-nine per cent. on the whole, are recorded as causing no serious injury to any person. The number of accidents falls far behind the record of February, and was exceeded in January.

AN antidote for hydrophobia peculiar to Kentucky is the "mad stone," consisting of a hard, porous substance, the application of which to the wound is alleged by superstitious people to absorb the poison transmitted from the mouth of a dog. A process for making mad stones, offered by Mr. Isaac McCubbins, of Bradfordsville, Ky., consists of "sewing up a toad in a piece of buckskin, throwing it into an ant mound or nest, and allowing it to remain for two years, when full efficacy is attained and the stone is ready for use."

THE Franklin fund of Boston is estimated by the treasurer to amount to between $190,000 and $200,000, and at the centennial anniversary of Franklin's death, fifteen years hence, when, in accordance with the provisions of the original bequest, it is to be used for public improvements, it will probably amount to double the present sum. The fund in Philadelphia, originally the same with that of Boston, amounts to only $46,835. The difference is due to the superior financial management of the Boston fund.

DURING the Senatorial contest in West Virginia, Major Hotchkiss, of Staunton, made a sensible speech. He said: "Gentlemen, if no one will make a speech, I will; and I will stop when I get done. Citizens of West Virginia, if you would take the same interest in developing the resources of your country by opening your rich mines, cultivating the soil, improving your stock, and cultivating habits of industry, that you take in hunting public offices for yourself and friends, you would have one of the first and best States in the Union."

THE workmen at the locomotive works at Chattanooga, Tenn., have just built a locomotive named after Senator Andrew Johnson. On a panel on each side of the cab is painted the name of the Senator in gilt letters, while just above is the representation of a pair of shears, bearing the inscription, "From Tailor to President." A portrait of Mr. Johnson is painted on the rim of the tender, while at each corner, encircling a laurel wreath, are the words, "I will make Rome howl. The Union and the Constitution."

A DUBUQUE dispatch says that the eastern and western creditors of B. F. Allen, the banker, joined issue there, and in Judge Love's Court a decree was issued throwing Allen into bankruptcy. J. S. Polk, of Des Moines, appeared for the western, and L. H. Busber for the eastern creditors and for the Cook County (Ill.) National Bank, which holds $900,000 indebtedness against Allen. S. S. Etheridge was appointed receiver until an assignee is provided by the Register of the State. In the opinion of Mr. Busbee, Allen's estate will not pay over ten cents on the dollar.

A CATHOLIC statistician claims that out of the 40,000,000 of souls in the United States, 5,761,242 are Roman Catholics. They occupy 6,920 stations, chapels, and churches; they have the service of 4,873 priests, six apostolic vicars, forty-nine bishops, nine archbishops, and one cardinal. That they are increasing rapidly is quite obvious. They already have eighteen theological schools, or seminaries, with nearly 1,500 students; over 2,000 schools of all grades and more than 300 asylums and hospitals. The jurisdiction of these prelates has a very wide range, from 2,000 souls in the diocese of Little Rock, Ark., to 3,000 in that of Chicago, and from the archbishopric of Oregon, comprising 20,000 to that of New York, rated at 700,000.

A CORRESPONDENT, writing from Rome, N. Y., tells a curious story of a citizen of that locality selling his wife. The agreement between the parties is reproduced, as follows: "The agreement witnesseth—That I, Hezekiah Wright, of the first part, for the consideration of three bunches of shingles, one-half acre of unharvested corn, and one-half of an acre of unharvested potatoes, do sell, assign, and transfer all my right, title, and interest in and to my wife, Mary Wright, to Joseph Torrence, of the second part." (Signed and sealed.) After the instrument in writing had been drawn the same was read to the wife of the seller, who witnessed the same, and agreed to become the property of the purchaser, and accordingly gathered her personal effects and took up her abode with Mr. Torrence.

A Remarkable Pet.

A French journalist met with a strange pet the other day when paying a visit. While he was talking he noticed something moving on the carpet which was neither dog nor cat. On looking again he saw that it was a fine lobster, dark gray, spotted with red, and thought it must have escaped from the kitchen. The lady smiled, and said, "I must tell you the history of my pet. Some months ago I bought a lobster, and as it was not wanted for dinner my cook left it in the water in the kitchen. I was going to a ball that night, and, being ready, I sat in an easy chair and fell asleep. Suddenly I sprang up from the pain of a sharp bite in my foot, and saw the lobster biting it. I started up and ran to the kitchen. No one was there, and a cloth in front of the fire had caught fire. It was soon extinguished, but I have kept the lobster ever since out of gratitude." It has its basin of cold water, and seems to recognize its mistress, and is so fond of music that it is always drawn towadrs the piano whenever she plays.

Another Spelling Puzzle.

A correspondent of the Boston Advertiser proposes the following sentences as an exercise for spelling matches:

Looking up, into his goloptious eyes, she said, "And is it indeed, true, Alfred, that our soul, in the process of transmogrification, explunctifies itself through the whole caboodle of eternity?"

"Nay, dearest," replied Alfred, and his countenance betrayed an expression of irascification, not to say disgruntlement, which cavorted over his features for an instant.

"Our souls cannot become sufficiently matterated to admit of the necessary spifflication which—"

The sentence was never finished; for as he spoke he seated himself upon a chair whose legs had been exasperated two inches, and he came down unexpectedly kerchunk.

A Russian Imperial Scandal.

An Imperial scandal has been brewing in Russia. The parties are the Empress and her physician, Dr. Botkine. The story as whispered abroad is that the Doctor has supreme control over the movements of the Empress, and that Madame Botkine rules the court physician. Madame was anxious to go to St. Remo; the Empress had to go there also. While Madame Botkine can control the movements of royalty, an unpleasant foreshadowing of Siberia must haunt the Doctor, because the story is current at the clubs, and Imperial power is not likely to brook the gossip now freely spoken among the ladies of honor.

FOREIGN NOTES.

THE steamers and sailing vessels in the British marine are about as 1 to 7.

THE Australians have been having a very hot summer, the mercury touching 111 degrees in the shade at Victoria.

EYRE & SPOTTISWOODE, the English printers, will produce a copy of the Bible with all the proper names accented to show the pronunciation.

A WRITER in the London Globe says "There are only three nations who use slang to any great extent, viz.: France, England and America. Of these the French is by far the wittiest, Americans the most appropriate, and English the most forcible and obscure."

THE Baroness de Macedo, widow of a Portugese Admiral and domiciled in Paris for thirty years, has just committed suicide. She had been operated upon for cancer, but a second operation was necessary, and she preferred immediate death to the repetition of painful postponement.

LONDON has another new industry. A man advertises himself as "Knocker-up and window tickler, from three to seven." He wakes heavy sleepers who wish to get up early. Window tickling is waking without ringing the bells, by means of a long pole, with which he taps on the window pane.

Punch furnishes this inscription for the front of the idiot asylum founded by Mr. Holloway, who made his fortune in "patent medicines:"

'Not oft is fate so just—see wealth restored
Back to the simple source from which it poured."

IN the last published part of the German history of the war this order appears as issued August 30, 1870: "In case the enemy should pass on to the Belgian territory, and should not be disarmed immediately, follow without awaiting further instructions. DE MOLTKE." If any officer blundered into Belgium on that occasion they might not have punished him severely.

THE London Lancet recommends a new remedy for coughs, viz., resistance of the desire to cough until the phlegm has accumulated in large quantities, when there will be something to cough against, and the phlegm may be brought up with much less effort. The Lancet says that a great deal of the hacking, hemming and coughing in invalids is purely nervous or the effect of habit, and that an exercise of will is needed to prevent the wasteful exercise of power in clearing the throat. Experiments in hospital have shown this to be true.

JOHN RUSKIN goes cold, because he hates smoke; lives out of town because he hates noise; shuts himself out of society because he despises women; will not go aboard steamers because the noise of their whistling is abominable; reads only his own works because other people's ideas worry him; and now refuses to travel by rail because he met with an accident some time ago. His last trip by carriage cost him $350, and he hates that mode of conveyance. John, go West, squat on the prairie, sing your own praises alone, and give up growling.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

OFFICE OF TREASURER OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY,
PITTSBURGH, April 1, 1875.

☞ IN PURSUANCE OF THE TWENTY-first section of an Act relative to Allegheny county, approved the 1st day of May, 1861, and of the amendment of said section, approved the 30th day of March, 1866, I do hereby give notice that the duplicates for the several wards, boroughs and townships will be open, and I will be prepared to receive the

County, State and Poor Taxes
FOR 1875,
On and After the 1st Day of May, 1875.

Said Taxes can be paid at this office until the 1ST DAY OF AUGUST, with DEDUCTION OF FIVE PER CENT.

For prompt payment to all persons paying the whole amount of their Taxes.

There will be no reduction allowed during the month of August. There will be

TEN PER CENT. ADDED

To all Taxes remaining unpaid on the 1ST DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1875.

SAMUEL KILGORE,
TREASURER OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

☞ TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE COMPTROLLER OF CURRENCY,
WASHINGTON, March 18, 1875.

Whereas, by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that "The Third National Bank of Allegheny, in the City of Allegheny, in the county of Allegheny, and State of Pennsylvania, has been duly organized under and according to the requirements of the act of Congress entitled "An act to provide a National Currency secured by a pledge of United State bonds and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved June 3d, 1864, and has complied with all the provisions of said act required to be complied with before commencing the business of banking under said act.

Now, therefore, I, Jno. Jay Knox, Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that "The Third National Bank of Allegheny, in the City of Allegheny, in the county of Allegheny, and State of Pennsylvania, is authorized to commence the business of banking under the act aforesaid.

[L. S.] In testimony whereof, witness my hand and seal of office, this 18th day of March, 1875.

(Signed) JNO. JAY KNOX,
Comptroller of Currency.

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, April 24, 1875.

The surplus money, of which we have frequently spoken of late, has been seeking investment in local securities, such as mortgages and stocks, and there is a very palpable activity developed recently in real estate operations. Quite a number of good properties have recently been purchased, for purposes of investment, and some for speculation. In certain parts of the city, we are told, there is as much building going forward as in the most prosperous times. The Summer bids fair to be one of average activity as regards building enterprise, and we will probably number as many new houses added to the city as at any other time.

In strictly financial circles there is nothing new to note. Money is reasonably plentiful, and the demand, it is thought, will soon give it employment. A better feeling begins to pervade business circles. Whatever the future, the present is becoming fairly prosperous. That is, when our mills are in operation, no matter how little the manufacturers make, there is a certain measure of prosperity imparted to other departments of trade. Still, we hope our manufacturers will make money.

—The Chicago Inter-Ocean, referring to the tendency of higher rates in securities, says, reduction of rates of interest cannot be presented in the securities of any sort now in the market except by a rise in their prices. In fact this effect has already begun to be felt in railroad securities, and it is believed by some of the shrewd financiers, that railroad bonds have turned their lowest point. There has been a general reform in railroad management throughout the country in the last year, and there is scarcely a line that is not more economically managed than it was a year ago. Government bonds are all higher than they were a month ago. Take for example the 5-20s of 1867, of which there are over $300,000,000 outstanding; a month ago with gold ranging from 116¼ to 117, these were quoted at 120 in currency, and now with gold at 114¾, these are quoted at 122 in New York. This represents a rise of 4 per cent. in the gold value of the bonds. A month ago their gold value was 102, now it is 106. Examination will show a similar rise in all the other Governments bonds. It will be seen that the profit of foreign holders who deal in the bonds on a gold basis has been just double that of Americans who deal in them on a currency basis. The question now is will Government bonds go higher? Judging by the large surplus of capital seeking employment in London at low rates of interest, we think this not improbable. But, if the foreign demand for United States bonds should not continue, and if the exports of bonds should diminish, the price of sterling exchange, and consequently of gold, would advance, and this would make an advance in their currency prices in this country. In short, it seems now as if all sorts of securities which have any bottom to them at all were on the rise, and a great many that have no real value will feel some of the speculative effect.

NEW YORK, April 23, 1875.

Money was easily at 2½@3; choice mercantile paper 4 1-2; prime 6. Sterling was strong at 487½@487 1-2 for sixty day and 490@490 1-2 for sight. The dry goods imports for the week were $1,591,064. The customs receipts were $216,000. Gold was steady at 115⅛. Loans were made flat and at 1 per cent. for borrowing. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed $263,000. The clearings were $24,000,000. The specie engagements for to-morrow's steamers are $1,600,000. Government bonds were firm. Railroad mortgages are strong and higher. State bonds are steady.

In the share market the stocks of the different Pacific roads continue in favor, and were all higher, the advance in some cases being equal to 1@2 1-2 per cent. Union Pacific led the list, as usual of late, and rose from 76 1-2 to 78 3-8, the highest figures ever made for the stock. The rise was stimulated by the announcement, on the authority of the President of the Panama Company, that the contract with the Pacific Mail has been settled, and that it adds largely to the annual earnings of the Union Pacific, probably as much as $5,000,000 per annum, without increased expense. It gives the Panama $40,000 per month, or enough to enable it to declare 24 per cent. dividend on its capital stock. The Pacific Mail Company will also be a gainer. The contract is terminable on thirty days' notice by either party.

The Kansas Pacific was prominent in dealings, and rose to 27 for common and 39 for preferred. Missouri Pacific rose to 52¼, and Atlantic & Pacific preferred to 16½. Panama was firm at 143@145. Delaware, Lackawanna & Western advanced to 116⅜, and New Jersey Central to 113⅜. The balance of the market was firm early in the day and generally higher. In late dealings Union Pacific, Kansas Pacific and Rock Island were at nearly the highest prices of the day, but the rest of the list showed a reaction of 1-4 to 1 1-4 per cent., chiefly in Lake Shore, Ohios and Northwest.

The transactions aggregated 198,000 shares, of which 20,000 were Pacific Mail, 28,000 Western Union, 8,000 Northwest, 9,000 Erie, 38,000 Lake Shore, 8,000 Wabash, and 53,000 Union Pacific.

Condition of the Markets at Home and Abroad.

DAILY REPORT OF PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, April 23, 1875.

General trade shows some improvement, and it is in a much better condition than it was prior to the winding up of the lock-out, although the present season has been remarkably backward. Our merchants generally are feeling considerably better, and reports from the principal Western centres note an improvement, both in commercial and monetary matters, of a character that leaves no room to doubt as to its permanency. The leading articles, including Coffee, Sugar, Provisions, Flour and Grain continue strong, with every indication at this writing of a further appreciation.

APPLES—In light supply, and with some inquiry, the market is firmer; quotable at $2@2.50 ℔ bbl for common to fair and $3 to $3.25 for prime to choice.

APPLE BUTTER—50@55c ℔ gal.

BEANS—Dull but unchanged. Quotable, in a round lot way, at $1.75@1.80 for mediums, and $1.85@1.90 for navies.

BUTTER—The supply of the finer grades continues light, unequal to the demand, hence the recent advance is fully maintained. Prime to choice rolls 28@30; do. dairy, 32@33c.

CHEESE—There is a fair jobbing demand but no change in prices; prime Ohio Goshen, 16½@17 cents; New York do., 17@17½c.

CRANBERRIES—$10@12 ℔ bbl.

DRIED FRUIT—Continues quiet and unchanged. Apples, 7¼@8¼; Peaches, (halves) 8@9c; Blackberries, 9@10.

EGGS—The receipts continue to keep up well, and with a supply somewhat in excess of present requirements and holders anxious to realize, the market is weak and drooping at 14@15.

FLOUR—The market continues strong, in sympathy with the recent sharp appreciation in Wheat, and dealers generally are now asking an advance of from 15@25c ℔ bbl. We advance our quotations accordingly. Spring wheat flours may be quoted at $5.75@5.85 for Wisconsins; and $6@6.25 for Minnesotas; winters, $6@6.25 for red, and $6.50@6.75 for amber and white. Rye Flour, $5.75@6.

GROCERIES—There is a very fair business, it is better than it has been, and improving, although the demand for all the leading staples, is confined mainly to supplying immediate wants. Coffee continues firm. Messrs. John Moore & Co., of Rio de Janeiro, in their circular of the 22d March, just at hand, writes as follows: New Crop.—The season is now so far advanced that reliable information on this subject can now be given. The new crop is undoubtedly a small one, which fact is attributable chiefly to the almost incessant rain and unusual low temperature prevailing during our summer months, which causes are still in operation, and are likely to make the crop a late one.

GRAIN—The receipts of all kinds of grain continue very meagre, and with a light supply and an increasing demand, the markets are firm with an upward tendency. There is considerable inquiry for Wheat, mostly from country millers, and little or none offering; we continue to quote Penna and Ohio red at $1.18@1.20; ditto amber and white at $1.23@1.25—there is more inquiry for the former than the latter. The Oat market continues strong with a light supply and an increasing demand; we continue previous quotations; mixed, 68@69c; white, 70@71. Ear Corn scarce and higher, 85@85, and the same quotations will answer for shelled, free in elevator. The supply in this market has not been so much reduced this year as it is at the present time. Rye is still quoted at $1.15@1.20.

HAY—Loose sold from country wagons to-day, in Allegheny, at $28@33, an advance. Baled is firmer; $16@18 for prairie, and $20@28 for timothy.

HOMINY—$4.25@4.50 ℔ bbl.

MAPLE SYRUP—$1.15@1.25 ℔ gallon jugs.

ONIONS—$3.50@4.50 ℔ bbl, according to quality and condition. Onion Setts, $7@8 ℔ bu.

POULTRY—Dressed Poultry continues in light supply; Chickens, 13@14c ℔ lb; Turkeys, 17@18c. Live Chickens, by the coop, 65@75c ℔ pair.

POTATOES—The general tone of the market is possibly a shade firmer in consequence of diminished receipts, but prices as yet are not quotably better, and the demand is mainly for small lots. Quotable, in a jobbing way, at $1@1.10 ℔ bushel, as to quality.

PROVISIONS—There is a continued steady demand for Hams, Shoulders, Sides and Lard, but there has been no change in prices since the date of our last report.

SEEDS—Clover Seed continues scarce, with considerable inquiry; quotable at $7.75@8.25. Timothy quiet and unchanged; $2.60@2.80.

RAGS—Quiet and unchanged; regular sales at 2½@3 cts for good mixed. woolen ½c ℔ lb.

SWEET CORN—5@6c ℔ lb.

TALLOW—Easy at 7½ to 7¾ for country, and 8½ for prime city rendered.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, April 23, 1875.

PIG IRON.

Trade has been rather quiet during the past week, the demand as yet has not come up to general expectation, but, notwithstanding the inquiry since the starting up of the mills has not come up to what was generally expected, the general tone of the market is toward increased strength, and producers generally are holding for an advance. Twenty-four dollars, 4 mos, is still regarded as the ruling price for standard gray forge, yet, as already intimated, producers generally are asking $25, and refusing to accept anything less. The mills, however, as a rule, were pretty well stocked before they started, having bought during January and February, hence they are not apparently very anxious to buy in the present condition of affairs, preferring rather to use what they have before buying any more. Foundry iron continues quiet and unchanged; No. 1, $27@28; No. 2, $25@26. White and Mottled, $21@22. Following sales were reported.

MANUFACTURED IRON AND NAILS.

The reports in regard to the condition of the market for finished irons are rather conflicting; some makers report that orders are not coming forward as freely as they expected, while others, again, are reported as being very busy, with orders booked sufficient to absorb their production from 60 to 90 days. Prices are steady; merchant bars quotable at 2.40, usual time—the card remains unchanged at 2½. The Nail trade continues fairly active, but it is complained that current rates yield little or no margin for profit.

ORE.

There is considerable ore offering; a number of sellers have been here from Cleveland within the past few days, having been encouraged to come in consequence of the ending of the lock-out. The price for Lake Superior delivered on the dock at Cleveland was fixed at $7.50, but it is not certain that it will be adhered to. The same ore was worth —in 1873—$12.50, and last year, $9.50. Iron Mountain ore is down to $6 ℔ ton delivered at Carondelet, a sharp decline, as compared with the past two years. This shows as clearly as anything can the heavy shrinkage in prices in the iron trade.

SCRAP IRON.

The demand for scrap has fallen off very materially since the ending of the lock-out, and prices, in consequence, are weak and drooping. No. 1 wrought quotable at $32@33, delivered free at mills, and slow at that, against sales about a month or six weeks ago at $37@38.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, April 23, 1875.

The Crude market continues weak, and as compared with yesterday, prices were lower. Immediate shipment at Parker quoted at $1.62½ ℔ bbl. Barge oil offered, to be delivered on first water, at $1.55. Refined weaker, in sympathy with the continued shrinkage in the raw article; 11¼ bid delivered at Connellsville depot after 28th, to go to Baltimore. There appears to be little call for immediate delivery.

Oil Barrels were reported to-day at $1.20 for countries, and $1.30 for city make, with sales.

FOREIGN OUTLOOK.

The stocks of refined in the five leading foreign markets, Bremen, Antwerp, Hamburg, Rotterdam and Stettin, on April 3, were 257,964 bbls., against 458,974 bbls same time last year. The quantities afloat for the same ports, April 3d, were 135,385 bbls., against 89,247 bbls. same time 1874. The quantities loading, April 3d, were 125,500 bbls., against 105,800 bbls. same time last year.

Suspension of a Wool Firm.

In regard to the reported suspension of the old wool firm of Walter Brown's Sons & Co., of 146 Duane street, which was circulated yesterday, a Bulletin reporter later in the day conversed with one of the firm, who confirmed the statement, but said: "We have asked an extension of time from our creditors, who are few in number, and we have no doubt but a satisfactory arrangement will be made before Saturday, when we will resume operations as usual. There is no question but that our request will be granted, and we shall pay one hundred cents on the dollar, with interest. Our suspension was the consequence of losses in business attendant upon the depression in trade, shrinkage in prices and difficulty of making collections." Mr. Brown, otherwise, spoke very hopefully and said they had no idea of discontinuing business. No information was obtained in regard to the liabilities of the firm, though Mr. Brown stated they were comparatively small.—N. Y. Bulletin.

May Corn Options in Chicago.

The question in regard to the delivery of corn on May options is beginning to assume definite shape. Parties who have sold the contracts claim that they have the right to withdraw the new corn from store and have it removed to different elevators, reinspected under the rule in force after Tuesday next, and deliver it on their contracts for May. The buyers of these contracts insist that the reinspection of the corn is illegal, and it is rumored that, if it is attempted, an injunction will be served on the grain inspector. There is no doubt that the next two weeks will witness lively work among the operators in corn.—Chicago Tribune.

BOATS ADVERTISED TO LEAVE TO-DAY.

Exchange, Cincinnati, 4 P. M.
Cherokee, New Orleans, 4 P. M.

THE stage of water last evening was seven feet scant and falling. With but two feet in the Allegheny at Oil City, navigation on that stream is ended for the present. The Ohio is also getting low for running coal, but is still in excellent condition for freighting. Weather yesterday clear and pleasant.

THE Coal Valley departed for Cincinnati, with a tow of coal and coke.

THE Mallie Ragon from Wheeling, and towboats Diamond and Samson No. 2 arrived.

THE Nellie Peck was expected at Sioux City on the 18th, and the Carroll on the 19th.

CAPT. BRAITHWAITE, at Bismarck, has secured an up river trip from the Fontenelle.

THE Wild Duck, Capt. Adams, is filling up steadily for St. Louis, and will soon be ready to cut loose.

CAPT. M. B. HAYWARD, of the steamer Glasgow, died on Wednesday at Shawneetown, very suddenly of heart disease.

THE R. W. Skillinger is due here from Ironton to-morrow night, and will take her departure, as usual, on Tuesday at 4 P. M.

THE Shannon is en route from Nashville, and should arrive here between this and Monday. She will load for a return trip to Nashville.

THE numerous friends of Mr. Harry Oliver, of the iron firm of Lewis, Oliver & Phillips, will be glad to learn that he is able to be around.

THE laborers on the Great Republic at New Orleans struck last Saturday and detained her. The price demanded was $2.50 a day, but the contracter standing firm, the men, after a good deal of arguing, returned to work at the rate of $2.

THE fine steamer Exchange, Capt. Shuman, with Messrs. Harbison and Dales associated together in the office, will positively take her departure for Cincinnati to-day. The Juniata has transferred her cargo to the Exchange, and will lay up for the present.

THE Cherokee, Capt. Wolfe, is announced to take her departure for New Orleans this P. M., and passengers should make a note of the fact that she should clear through. The Cherokee is an A 1 boat in all respects.

THE Katydid is on the Middleport docks, being lengthened forty feet. Her present two boilers will be taken out, and a single return flue boiler will be substituted, fourteen feet long and fifty inches in diameter, with the especial object of making her lighter.

A DUBUQUE paper of Tuesday says:—The arrival of the owner of the Utah, a wild boat looking for freight at "cut rates," was the occasion for the K. N. line to "cut" also, to keep even. Rates, therefore, will drop to 12½ per cent on grain, or to any other figure the Utah will carry.

SEVERAL packages of goods for the relief of the Kansas and Nebraska sufferers were brought here by the Brownsville Packet Co. free of charge, and Pat Shannon charged nothing for hauling them from the wharf to the freight depot of the Fort Wayne R. R. Co., but there they would not be received unless the freight was paid.

IT was in 1828 the first steamboat arrived at Knoxville, Tenn. It was the Atlas, not the Enterprise, as erroneously reported. She returned to the Ohio and run up to Nashville, on the Cumberland, where she could be seen lying alongside of other keel boats, as she was only a keel boat with cargo box, and a single valve engine. She had a stern wheel.

A NEBRASKA CITY paper says: The transfer company is having teams haul brush to put on the point where the boats make their landing, and on this brush fifteen car loads of rock which arrived here to-day will be placed. This will effectually hold the earth and secure the landing. A terrible rise next June is anticipated, and preparations are being made for it.

AN April 22d dispatch from St. Louis says:—The Grand Lake No. 2 passed south this morning. She ran her coal fleet over a snag, thirty-five miles above here, last night, losing two boats and a barge, with upwards of fifty thousand bushels of coal, worth $10,000. The property belonged to the Grand Lake Company, and is not insured. It was destined to Red River and Bayou Sara.

WHILE the Republic was receiving grain opposite St. Louis, a week ago, there was a "stowaway" in the hold, and he was soon suffocated by the sacks that were thrown on him. The dead body was not discovered till the boat reached New Orleans. After leaving St. Louis, Bill Patterson, the mate, became aware that a very bad stench existed below, and a man was sent down to investigate the matter, but found nothing. It is believed that the unfortunate man had stowed himself away and was caught under the sacks and suffocated without being able to make his voice heard.

THE following is from the St. Louis Democrat of Thursday:—Captain Wm. Thompson has taken charge of the Tom Jasper, and will back her out from the Northern wharfboat for Steubenville, Pittsburgh and way landings. And here occurs the right place for iron ore items, which we glean from Mr. Eugene Fuzz, Mr. Shoemaker and others. The Tom Jasper has six hundred tons of ore on board, and takes two barges loaded with the same—total twelve hundred tons—all for Steubenville, we believe. She also takes miscellaneous freight. These big sidewheelers are proving to be excellent towboats in the St. Louis and Ohio River iron and miscellaneous trade. The Mollie Ebert left last night for Pittsburgh, with 250 tons of pig iron, a miscellaneous lot of goods, etc. E. H. Williamson and Kirkpatrick are her pilots. The John Means, Captain Hiram Davis, leaves to-morrow with four barges—two thousand tons Iron Mountain ore for the Ironton Steel Works of Ironton, Ohio.

YESTERDAY'S Cincinnati Commercial says: The Kittie Hegler received 400 bbls of pork, and departs for Pittsburgh to-morrow. John Dippold and Nellie Speer, with coal from Pittsburgh; Cobb Cecil and J. S. Neel, with empty tows from Louisville, arrived. The Panther and Sam. Clark, with empty barges for Pittsburgh, and Liberty No. 4 for Pomeroy, departed. The Arlington, from Memphis, arrived, re-shipped her Pittsburgh freight on the Andes. She returns on Saturday. The General Buell, from Madison, brought 750 bales hay and straw, 256 sks grain, and re-shipped 800 bags and 200 bbls flour to Pittsburgh. The John L. Rhoads is named after an old citizen of Pittsburgh, a practical [illegible] and commander, and one of nature's noblemen. We congratulate our old-time friend on the compliment of naming so elegant a business boat after him. Captain J. Alex. Frazier and Captain Jos. H. Williams are her pilots.

HOME NEWS.

Amusements To-day.

PITTSBURGH OPERA HOUSE—Fifth avenue. Afternoon, "Oliver Twist." Evening, "Child Stealer." Lucille Western in both performances.

TRIMBLE'S VARIETIES THEATRE—Penn avenue. Splendid variety performance. Afternoon and evening.

Relinquishing a Charge.

Some time ago an infant was left on the door step of the house No. 224 Federal street, Allegheny. It was kindly taken in charge, temporarily, by the inmates, who kept it until yesterday, when it was turned over to the Board of Poor Directors. It has found a permanent home at the Poor House.

Funeral of the Late Jacob Hays.

Yesterday afternoon the funeral of the late Jacob Hays, Esq., took place from the residence of his son on Chatham street. The attendance was very large as the deceased had a multitude of friends hereabouts, who thus paid the last tribute of respect to the memory of one whom to know was to esteem. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Williams, who with other ministers to whom the deceased was known, bore testimony to his straightforward character. After the exercises at the house the remains were taken to the Allegheny Cemetery and laid to rest amid the sincere mourning of many sorrow stricken friends.

A Pleasing Occasion.

To the Editors of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

It was in accordance with the fitness of things that one of the most enjoyable parties of the season was given by Mr. George Y. McKee, at his residence near Oakdale, Wednesday evening last, to commemorate the birthday of his son C. M. McKee, a young man of many excellencies of character and much promise. The company present was composed of the youth and beauty of the neighborhood to the number of twenty couple, all of whom undoubtedly enjoyed themselves to the utmost. The members of the family of Mr. McKee succeeded most admirably in entertaining their guests, and they departed at a late hour, one and all bearing the kindliest regards for the pleasure afforded them. The refreshment part of the occasion was especially noteworthy, to say nothing of the many other pleasing features of the evening. The young man in whose honor the party was gotten up has the good wishes of those present and all his acquaintances, who wish that success may crown his every honest endeavor. S.

Municipal Gas Matters.

The Gas Committee met yesterday afternoon, and a communication from the West Pittsburgh Gas Company refusing to make any reduction in the price now paid them for gas used in the street lamps, was read and placed on file. The following pay rolls were approved:

|---|---|
| South Side Gas Co. | $1,859 15 |
| Pittsburgh Gas Co. | 590 53 |
| West Pittsburgh Co. | 1,062 75 |
| East End Co. | 3,329 19 |
| Total | $6,831 52 |

On motion it was decided to recommend the erection of lamps and posts at the following points: Corner of Seneca and Tustin streets; Twelfth and Mary Ann streets, South Side; Chatham street and Denny's alley; on Eighth street between Liberty and Penn; corner of Liberty and Penn avenues; Liberty avenue and Elm street; on Cherry alley between Seventh avenue and Oak alley; Bedford avenue between Elm and Logan streets; corner of Fifth avenue and Ross street; corner of Fifth avenue and High street; corner of Locust and Stevenson streets; corner of Our alley and Logan street; three on Thirty-seventh street above Butler street, and four on Main street.

BECK'S CASE.

A Hearing Postponed.

Yesterday afternoon had been fixed upon by Mayor Phillips as the time for a hearing in the case of the man Knoblauch, who is charged with cutting John Beck during a melee on Troy Hill, on Sunday night, two weeks ago. When the case was called, however, yesterday, it was ascertained that Beck's condition was yet so serious that he could not leave his home. The hearing, accordingly had to be postponed. Beck is said to be suffering considerably, and to be in a precarious condition.

THIRTY-SEVENTH WARD MUDDLE.

The Case Carried to the Supreme Court.

A writ of ceritorari was issued yesterday out of the Supreme Court in the case of James Kelly vs. the city of Pittsburgh, and directed to the Common Pleas Court No. 2, commanding that the record in said case and all the proceedings had thereon be certified to the Supreme Court for review. It will be recollected that Messrs. Reynolds, Slagle & Hamilton filed exceptions to the decree of the Court declaring the annexation of the Thirty-seventh ward illegal, and this writ is taken out for the purpose of securing a hearing before the higher Court. It is understood that an effort will be made to have a special hearing in this case at the May term at Harrisburg. In case of failure it will come up for hearing at the fall session in this city.

ALLEGHENY FIRE DEPARTMENT.

A New and Prudent Regulation.

Chief Engineer Crow is determined to make the Allegheny Fire Department as effective, and as perfectly disciplined as brains and experience can make it. He has just adopted a new regulation which went into effect last night, by which one of the firemen is kept on duty all night. Heretofore all the men have been privileged to go to their bunks and sleep at night—and the plan has worked well, as the gong always calls them to duty in an instant. It is thought, however, that a little advance might be made by having one man on duty, [illegible] of an alarm, could see to the horses, and thus save [illegible] few seconds of time while his comrades were turning out. Accordingly it has been so arranged, and the men will alternate in taking their places "on watch," the foreman alone being exempt. The new rule has been accepted with satisfaction by all the men.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

The Programme for the Grand Celebration in this City.

From the preparations being made by the members of the Masonic fraternity, there is no doubt but that the meeting of the Grand Commandery of the Knights Templar of the State, in this city next month will be a grand demonstration. The Templars of this vicinity are putting forward every exertion to have their visitors royally entertained when they come, and our hospitality will be conspicuously exhibited. The sessions of the Grand Encampment will be held on the 25th, 26th and 27th. The principal business of interest to the outside public will be the election and inauguration of officers. On Thursday morning the review of the Templars will take place, when they will parade in procession through the principal streets. In the afternoon, at three o'clock, the public installation of the officers will take place at the Commandery headquarters, in Library Hall.

The occasion promises to be one of unusual brilliance.

THAT FRIENDSHIP BOND.

Rebutting Testimony Offered Yesterday—The Plaintiff on the Stand.

The friendship bond case which has been on trial in the Common Pleas Court No. 2 during the week, has not as yet been completed, and though it was thought the evidence would all be in by to-day and the case brought to a final issue, it now looks as though most of next week will be occupied before it is submitted to the jury. The evidence offered yesterday developed no new points except a history of the giving of the bond by McCully to Clark. The plaintiff was put upon the stand, and in his testimony stated that McCully had befriended him ever since he first formed his acquaintance, and took a special interest in his welfare. From the testimony of this witness it appears that the bond was written by Edgar Cowan, of Greensburg, and afterwards copied by Mr. Clark. Mr. Cowan will be put on the stand on Monday to testify for the plaintiff. Mr. Clark was subjected to a very severe cross-examination by Mr. Hampton yesterday, who seemed determined to know the history of the whole case.

CHURCH TROUBLE.

More Difficulty at Zion Baptist Church, in Allegheny.

There is more trouble in the Zion Baptist colored church, located on Park Way, Allegheny. The trouble is between the rival factions, headed respectively by Revs. Jackson and Coulter. It seems that at the beginning of the present month the faction which is numerically the smallest leased the building from its owner, ex-Mayor Morrison. He afterwards learned that the persons to whom he rented the building were not really the representatives of the church, whereupon he made a second lease to the larger faction, and now both parties claim possession and control of the building. On Thursday night the Coulter faction removed the lock from the door and put on one of their own. Learning of that action the Jackson party went to the church yesterday and displacing the Coulter lock, replaced it with another of a different pattern. These hostilities led to an interview yesterday afternoon between Rev. Coulter and Mayor Phillips, the interview being sought by the former. In response to an inquiry as to what he could do in the matter the Mayor said that he was not at liberty to do anything as long as they preserved the peace, but as soon as there was a disturbance or any disorderly conduct he would have the offenders promptly arrested and punished. The dispute as to the right of possession of the church he advised them to submit to a higher court than his for settlement.

REV. JOSIAH THOMPSON has been installed as pastor of the U. P. Church, located near Fairview, Beaver county, Pa.

SERVICES will be held as usual in the Second U. P church, Pittsburgh (Rev. T. H. Hanna), at 10½ o'clock A. M. and 3 P. M.

REV. D. B. KERR, D. D., will preach in the First U. P. church, Union avenue, Allegheny, to-morrow morning at 10½ o'clock.

REV. A. H. WIDNEY will publish a daily during the session of the Methodist General Conference, to be held next month at Princeton.

REV. MR. ROBINSON, of Sheakleyville, Mercer county, will probably be called to the pastorate of the Bridgewater Presbyterian church.

REV. C. H. SPURGEON is reported improved in health and is preaching again with his old vigor and power to immense congregations.

SERVICES to-morrow in the First R. P. church, corner of Sandusky and South Diamond streets, Allegheny, by Wm. Donaldson, at 10:30 A. M.

REV. ALEXANDER YOUNG, D.D., LL.D., has been elected Professor of Biblical Literature and Apologetics in the Theological Seminary, Xenia, Ohio.

REV. WILLIAM YOUNG will occupy the pulpit at the Reformed Presbyterian church, corner of Liberty street and Oak alley, to-morrow morning and evening.

MINISTERS are requested to meet in the Alliance Rooms, Monday, at 11 A. M., to consult regarding the National Temperance Convention to meet in this city 12th and 13th May.

THE Rev. Dr. Farrar, author of the "Life of Christ," has been made an Australian bishop. Scholar as he is, he has spent two years in Australia, and a longer time in India.

REV. THOMAS GUARD, D. D., the orator who lectured in this city last winter, will leave Baltimore for San Francisco next June, to take charge of the First church in the latter city.

REV. C. H. WILLIAMS, Corresponding Secretary of Board of Missions, Methodist (non-Episcopal), sends a circular dated April 1, to the people, appealing for aid in his department.

REV. J. H. HULL, the President of the Pittsburgh Conference, is preparing an (non-Episcopal) obituary of the lamented Rev. David Colclough, an aged member of the conference.

REV. J. H. MAC ELREY, of Philadelphia, will enter upon his pastorate of the Church of Redemption (Reformed Episcopal), East End, on Sunday, 25th inst. Service, morning 10½, evening 7½.

R. C. MONTEITH, a graduate of the Allegheny Seminary at the close of the last session, is expected to take charge of the U. P. congregation of North Kortright, in the Synod of New York, in May.

THE annual meeting of the Young Men's Bible Society of Allegheny county will be held in the parlor of the Y. M. C. A., corner of Penn avenue and Sixth street, on Monday evening, April 26, at 8 o'clock.

"GIDEON'S ARMY," Judges 7, 1-8, is the Sabbath school lesson for those that will meet at the Alliance rooms to-morrow at 1 o'clock, P. M. The question is, what is the best plan to capture the news boys.

THE knavish distinction which Bismarck would draw between the Papacy and the Church is so absurd, that we have no hesitation in characterizing it pure and unmitigated balderash.—Pittsburgh Catholic.

REVS. M. L. WORTMAN and Thomas Lawrence, and Elders A. M. Burchfield and Samuel Courtney have been chosen delegates to represent Allegheny Presbytery in the next General Assembly of the Presbyterian church.

REV. JOSEPH KING, pastor of the First Christian church, corner of Arch street and Montgomery avenue, Allegheny, will deliver a special lecture to-morrow evening on "Primitive Christianity and the Bible a Sufficient Creed."

REV. J. DERMITT, Prison Chaplain, has a new book case at the jail, and would be glad to receive from friends any books they can spare, printed in either the English or German language, and of Protestant or Catholic denomination.

AT the Lutheran church, corner of Arch street and Stockton avenue, Allegheny, Rev. J. G. Goettman, pastor, to-morrow afternoon at half-past two o'clock childrens' church will be held, at which time the baptism of children will take place.

LEGAL steps have been taken by one who owns a seat in Her Majesty's opera house, London, to prevent Moody and Sankey holding meetings in it. They continue to attract immense crowds to hear them, including members of the royal family.

THE next session of the Sunday School Teacher's Normal class will be held in the Smithfield street M. E. church Tuesday evening. Rev. I. C. Pershing, D. D., will be the conductor. The topic for consideration will be "The organization and management of the Sunday School."

AT the last regular meeting of Delaware Presbytery, N. Y., a unanimous call was presented by the congregation of Cabin Hill, for the ministerial services of Mr. A. S. Biddle, a licentiate of Monmouth Presbytery, and a recent graduate of the U. P. Theological Seminary of Allegheny.

THE first centenary of St. Paul of the Cross, will be celebrated at the Passionist Monastery church, South Side, by a Solemn Triduum on the 26th, 27th and 28th of this month. On the 28th, the Feast of St. Paul, the exercises will be unusually impressive, Bishop Domenec and Father Hickey, V. G., officiating.

THE General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America will meet on Thursday, May 20th, 1875, at 11 o'clock A. M., in the First Presbyterian church of the city of Cleveland, Ohio, and be opened with a sermon by Rev. Samuel J. Wilson, D. D., LL. D., the Moderator of the last Assembly.

TO-MORROW morning fifty persons, young and old, will be admitted into full membership in the North avenue M. E. church, Allegheny. This number makes over one hundred persons united with the church as the fruits of the work of last year. The pastor will preach in the evening on "The Great Question."

REV. MISS A. J. CHAPIN will preach to-morrow morning and evening in the First Universalist church, corner of Grant street and Third avenue. As this will be the last Sunday that Miss Chapin will preach in this city. Her subject in the morning will be "The Mission of Christ. In the evening "Foundation of the Church."

REV. R. W. PEARSON, D. D., will preach in the Fourth avenue Baptist church to-morrow at the usual hours. Morning subject: "To every hair a number; to every star a name;" and night lecture on "Railroad cries, and street echoes." The new house of worship is rapidly progressing. The church generously subscribed $10,000 toward finishing it.

THE Presbyterian Banner of this city advises the ministers with two Ds to the end of their name, connected with one of the colleges, who have prepared an overture to the next General Assembly, asking a modification of the "Article on Depravity," in the Presbyterian Confession of Faith, to keep their papers at home, and save themselves from worry and defeat.

THE Presbytery of Allegheny will hold an adjourned meeting in the Fourth Church Allegheny, on Thursday, April 29th, at half past seven o'clock P. M. Rev. W. G. Moorehead will be installed pastor of the Fourth Church at this meeting. Rev. N. F. Wade will preach the sermon; Rev. S. H. Graham will address the pastor; Rev. W. H. McMillan will preside and address the congregation.

EVERY Christian should sing in the worship of God for the purpose of helping others to sing. One voice strengthens another, one soul stimulates its neighbor soul, and thus the whole congregation is made strong in praise. Leaders are always necessary, but when they forget their place and assume to do all the singing, they are intruders in the house of God who should not be tolerated.—United Presbyterian.

THE Castle Shannon Methodist Camp Meeting Association have appointed the 4th of August next, 1875, as the time for commencing their next annual meeting. As a number of families will "summer" in this beautiful grove it is expected to have religious services there every Sabbath afternoon, as soon as the weather will permit, under the direction of Rev. W. H. Phipps, until the camp meeting commences.

WERE the professed followers of Jesus filled with the mind that was in him, their lives would be the most eloquent and convincing refutation of all the arguments with which unbelief has endeavored to assail the gospel. Before such witnesses and evidences of its power, infidelity would vanish for such living episiles are known and read of all men, and this writing is felt and acknowledged to be Divine.—Presbyterian Banner.

A PARAGRAPH in a Cincinnati daily says: "The widow of Rev. Maxwell P. Gaddis has taken to the stage, and made her debut in Cincinnati. A reporter rapturously describes her as a 'glorious blonde of marvelous beauty.'" To which the Christian Advocate of this city replies: "We did not know that our friend Rev. Maxwell P. Gaddis had such a 'charming widow.' He said nothing about her when we saw him a few days ago."

THE Catholic church in the United States probably numbers eight million communicants. The Catholics occupy 6,920 stations, chapels and churches; they have the service of 4,873 priests, 6 apostolic vicars, 49 bishops, 9 archbishops and one cardinal. They have 18 theological seminaries with nearly 1,500 students; over 2,000 schools of all grades, and more than 300 asylums and hospitals. There are among them 7 different orders of monks and friars, 12 of nuns, 8 different institutions such as Jesuits and Redemptorists, 12 congregations of priests and brothers and 30 sisterhoods.

IT CANNOT be otherwise, of course, than that the liberty of men to do as they please, should have attached to it a tremendous responsibility. It would be strange enough if it were not so. We should not know what to think of God if we could be persuaded that he had built all these glorious worlds, and filled them with countless myriads of moral beings endowed in their very structure with the unrecallable liberty to do as they please, and turned them all loose with no adequate responsibility for their characters and conduct. It must be of the utmost consequence to men whether they use their liberty well or ill.—Christian Advocate.

FOR the making of these which we call "common blessings," the resources of the wide universe are called into requisition. No extra atom of oxygen or nitrogen is allowed to enter into the atmosphere, no lack in the anatomical composition of the water, no withdrawing of the central heat of the earth, no single delay in any of the physical functions of nature. All are timed into perfect agreement with God's best thought for man's good. So that which in our human measure we reckon "common," requires the utmost of wisdom and the faultless supervision of Almight God. Let us be more mindful of our blessings.—Methodist Recorder.

THE M. E. Local Preachers Association of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and vicinity convened April 17th, Rev. J. Gatchell in the chair; W. H. Kincaid, Secretary. Reports were presented by the members, relative to their work; also, the new city missionary, Rev. A. H. Miller, gave an account of his field. A committee was ordered to co-operate with the city missionary and Rev. Mr. Rodgers in arranging and perfecting a plan of appointments. Rev. J. Vannote was chosen to preach the next quarterly sermon; W. H. Kincaid, alternate. The Sabbath was wholly devoted to religious services. At the morning hour Rev. W. Allcott, preached from the text:—Prov. 4:1, 2 At 2 P. M. a Sunday School meeting took place, at which W. H. Kincaid and Rev. T. Bateman delivered addresses. At the close an interesting experience meeting was held. In the evening a meeting occurred in the presence of a full house, W. H Kincaid presiding. Speaking exercises were opened with brief remarks from the Chairman, followed with short addresses by Revs. J. Downing, J. B. Jones and Chaplain Dermitt of the county jail. At the same hour Rev. J. Gatchell, by request, filled the pulpit of Rev. J. K. Melhorn, Lutheran church, South side. The next meeting will be at South Common M. E. church, Allegheny, in July.

FASTING AND PRAYER.

The Observance of a Day in Pittsburgh The Programme of Exercises for Friday.

Next Friday, April 30, having been fixed upon as a day of fasting and prayer by the friends of Temperance in England, it was decided also to observe that day in this city, and in accordance with that decision the following programme will be observed:

To convene at the Alliance Rooms, corner Penn avenue and Sixth street, at 10 A. M.

From 10 to 11—For the Christian men and women of the land, that they may know their duty in relation to the liquor traffic and dare to do it, and that temperance organizations may be prospered. Led by Rev. R. T. Miller.

From 11 to 11:45—For manufacturers and dealers, that God may open their eyes and enable them to see that they are ruining the bodies and souls of themselves and others. Led by Mrs. Allen.

At 11:45—All in attendance are requested to form in procession and proceed to the Second U. P. Church, Sixth avenue, (Rev. T. H. Hanna, pastor.)

From 11 to 1—For the pastors of the churches, that they may be clothed with spiritual power and taught of God as to the part they should take in this work. Led by Rev. B. F. Woodburn.

From 1 to 2—For drunkards and their suffering families, and for the youth of the land, that they may be kept from the debasing influence of strong drink. Led by Mrs. J. S. Collins.

From 2 to 3—For the country and all in official positions. Led by General T. H. Lane.

From 3 to 4—For the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the National Convention to be held in this city May 12th and 13th, and upon this community. Led by Rev. E. E. Swift, D. D.

In the evening a mass meeting will be held in the Bingham street M. E. church, South Side.

All who can attend from between the rivers and North Side are requested to meet at the Alliance Rooms at 7 o'clock, and go over in a body.

T. H. RABE, Chairman.
P. S. JENNINGS, Secretary.

Pittsburgh Female College.

We are pleased to learn that the Spring term of the Pittsburgh Female College is opening under favorable auspices, and copy, with pleasure, the following, from a recent issue of the Presbyterian Banner:

We were gratified to learn upon a recent visit to this popular institution, that notwithstanding the long continued depression occasioned by the panic, the College has been enjoying a high degree of prosperity. The attendance of pupils for the current year has been large, a number of applications for admission have been made for the new term which will open to-morrow, and the catalogue for the present year will, in all probability, enroll fully 250 names. We know of no Female College or Seminary in the country, except Vassar, which can exhibit a longer "muster roll" than this. It is true that a large attendance is not always a test of merit; but when continued for a long series of years, and composed of pupils whose parents are competent to form an opinion, and many of whom have tried other schools for their children, it certainly indicates very plainly the estimate formed by an intelligent community. The many advantages this excellent school presents, we will not stop to recapitulate, though we cannot forbear adverting to its latest attraction—the Conservatory of Music, employing 12 teachers, and making use of 14 pianos and 3 organs, besides a Grand Organ, such as is possessed by no other Female College. For further particulars send to the President, Rev. I. C. Pershing, D.D., Pittsburgh, Pa., for a catalogue.

A Durable Artificial Stone Pavement.

Experience has demonstrated that the best material for pavements yet discovered is the artificial stone. It contains all the hardness of stone, without its roughness and other disadvantages. Some of this kind of pavement, laid in this city four years ago, is as good as when put down. Artificial stone has stood the severest tests, resisting the frosts of winter, the heat of summer, and the wear of constant use. It makes a smooth and cheap pavement, and not an instance of failure has occurred when the work has been properly done. For flooring for cellars, malt houses, breweries, etc., it cannot be excelled.

For any information, for satisfactory reference, and for work in artificial stone, call at the office, No. 71 Federal street, Allegheny. TTHS

A Reputation Established.

"He who steals my purse," &c., but the Boston Clothing House is determined that no other house shall filch its good name for excellence in the line of ready made suits and also their cheapness. First class suits are sold at lowest rates, and having received a fresh supply of Spring Clothing of all grades, the naked and threadbare are invited to an inspection of the goods, which are even better and cheaper than any ever before offered. Nobby Spring Overcoats offered at the cost of material. You can be as well fitted at the Boston One Price, as if you ordered a suit to measure, and at half the price too.

Weddell's Pic-Nic Grove.

This beautiful grove is located at Hulton Station, on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, within a convenient distance of the city, and furnished with one of the largest platforms in the country, is now ready for rent to private parties, churches, literary societies, lodges, socials, clubs, &c. It is thickly covered with shade trees, and well furnished with every requisite for comfort and enjoyment. All information can be obtained from Mr. R. F. Weddell, of Weddell & Holmes, No. 347 Liberty street.

Get a Decent Suit

And to do so you should patronize James Bleakley, merchant tailor, No. 60 Smithfield street, whose suitings are of the finest quality, and whose charges are made to suit the popular purse.

Flowers speak a varied language; therefore bedeck your lawns with flowers, and procure vases for the same from N. U. Walker & Co. No. 372 Penn avenue.

BREVITIES.

Paragraphic Pencilings of Passing Events.

····Councils hold a regular meeting on Monday.

····A small dog, supposed to be rabid, was killed on Robinson street, Allegheny, yesterday afternoon.

····The Clipper boat club is arranging for a grand excursion on Decoration Day, to Rochester and return.

····Some of the property holders who have been assessed to pay for the Sylvan avenue bridge intend to appeal to court.

····The visiting committee of the Board of Directors of the Bedford District school, South Side, made a tour through the rooms yesterday.

····A warrant was issued by Alderman Anderson yesterday for the arrest of William Pollitt, who was charged with forcible entry and detainer by his brother Harry.

····All of the silk and part of the lace stolen last Saturday night from Graff's store, on Market street, has been returned in a manner as mysterious as the way it was taken.

····A frame house on Roup street, in the Twentieth ward was slightly damaged by fire yesterday afternoon. It caught on the roof, from a defective flue doubtless, but was extinguished before the engines got there.

····U. S. Marshall Hall sold about $300 worth of tobacco and cigars belonging to W. Kneckt, of Allegheny, in the Custom House yard yesterday. The property had been seized on account of its owner violating the revenue laws.

····A meeting of the citizens of the Thirteenth ward was held last night in the school house, at which a series of resolutions protesting against the plan for the Thirty-third street bridge were adopted, and will be presented to Councils on Monday.

····Alderman McKelvy, of Allegheny, yesterday issued a warrant for the arrest of Robert Hazlett on a charge of the larceny as bailee of a forty dollar suit of clothes from John Meyers. It is alleged that the accused borrowed the suit and failed to return it.

····A bill in equity was filed in the Common Pleas Court No. 1, yesterday, by Charles H. Armstrong et al. against John Dickson et al., the object of which is to secure an equitable division of certain lands, of coal, rights and privileges which the parties purchased in partnership.

····W. F. Hagan was before Alderman McKenna yesterday on a charge of false pretenses preferred by Louis Hilney. The plaintiff alleges that he loaned the defendant thirteen dollars with the understanding that his father would return it, which he (the father) refused to do, hence the suit.

····Yesterday morning, the bids for supplying the offices of the county officials at the Court House with ice, during the summer, were opened. There were several in all, the lowest being $2.75 per ton, and the highest $5.75. No awards were made until those making the lowest bids give security, when the contract will be let.

····The will of Patterson Agne was filed with Register Gray yesterday. His wife Charlotte, is appointed executrix of the instrument which is dated December 1, 1874. The will of Abraham Davis was also filed. Samuel P. Armstrong and William Evans are named as executors of the document, which bears date October 8, 1871.

····A young man named Shaw was arrested yesterday, by Detective Cupples and "Rover" Coulson, on a charge of having attempted to pass a counterfeit five dollar bill at the store of Herman Straub, on Federal street, Allegheny, in the morning. The prisoner was taken before Mayor McCarthy, and gave $1,000 bail for a hearing next Friday.

····The Board of Viewers visited Forbes street yesterday for the purpose of ascertaining what amount of damages will have to be paid for three or four houses which will be about destroyed by the heavy cut, the buildings being left on the edge of a thirty feet embankment, but if the wall keeps on crumbling it is thought they will not stay there much longer.

····A petition for a writ of habeas corpus on Superintendent Cordier of the Work House was presented, by Louis Ulrich, in the Common Pleas Court No. 2, yesterday morning. The petitioner is confined the Work House having been sent to that place for sixty days, on the nineteenth day of April, for disorderly conduct, by Mayor Phillips, of Allegheny. A writ was granted made returnable to-day.

····At the meeting of the Printing Committee, last evening, the following bids for printing two thousand copies of the committees of Councils, in pamphlet form, were opened: Herald Printing Co., $64.50; B. Singerly, $52.00; T. F. Best, $75; A. Mathias, $49.75. The latter being the lowest bidder, the contract was awarded to him. A number of bills were ordered to be paid, and the committee adjourned.

····Commander Tyson announces that arrangements have been made for reduced rates to and from Chicago, for those who wish to attend the National Encampment of the G. A. R. in that city on the 12th of next month. The fare from this city to Chicago and return will be $18.75, tickets good from May 1 to 12 westward. Orders must be procured before the tickets can be obtained. Parties going from Pittsburgh and vicinity should address for orders or information to Col. Norman M. Smith, box 243, Pittsburgh, Pa.

····It appears that a new weapon for inflicting punishment has been discovered out Penn avenue. A day or two ago James McCord got into an altercation with Wm. Decker, in a saloon, when McCord picked up a dog which was standing by and threw the animal with such force at his assailant that in striking him he was knocked down. The canine, in its efforts to get out of the away, plowed one or two deep furrows in the cheeks of Decker with its paws. The difficulty led to an information before Alderman O'Donnell, charging the manipulator of the canine weapon with assault and battery.

PERSONAL.

Contractor Hartupee was yesterday notified that the pumping house foundations are ready for the water works engines.

Major A. R. Buffinton, of the Indianapolis Arsenal, has been transferred to the Allegheny Arsenal in this city, to assume the position left vacant by the retirement of Major H. K. Whitely.

Sergeant Wm. F. Spielman, of Co. B, Duquesne Greys, has been appointed Orderly Sergeant on the staff of Col. Guthrie. He was presented on Thursday night with a handsome sword and belt.

The funeral of the late James S. Patterson took place yesterday afternoon from his brother's residence on Butler street. It was largely attended by relatives and friends and by the Knights of Pythias Lodge, of which Mr. Patterson was a member.

Dr. A. H. Gross, Treasurer Magee, Controller Snodgrass, David Aiken, Jr., Assistant Engineer Hamill, Fire Commissioners McIlroy and Pitcairn, and S. C. Hough, General Passenger Agent of the P. W. & B. R. R., were in Cleveland on Thursday and inspected the Fire Department of that city.

Henry Yost, a former resident of the South Side, who is now in jail at Louisville, on a charge of murder, has written to his relatives here requesting that money be sent him to fee a lawyer to defend him during the approaching trial. Yost, who was badly beaten during the affray, claims that the killing was done in self defense.

Grand Opening This Day.

Having closed out completely my entire old stock during the winter months, I am now prepared to furnish my patrons with a splendid new stock of ready made clothing from a full line of the latest fabrics of my own selection, and manufactured in my new factory, located in New York City. Being a practical cutter myself, I employ none but the best help. I have now in my service Mr. P. Dufe, who is a thorough artist in his line of business. Having ordered my stock during the recent panic, when cash was the desideratum with all dealers, I am enabled to sell cheaper than any other merchant tailor in the city. I am selling all wool suits, from $10 to $18; youth's suits, from $8 to $15; boys suits, from $4 to $8; suits made to order from imported fabrics, from $20 upwards; fine pants to order, of foreign fabrics, $8 and upwards. In all sales of garments made to order my motto "no fit, no sale." Everybody is invited to call and inspect my stock, which is the largest and best selected in the city, at the C. O. D. Clothier, Big 13, Sixth street. T. TOBIAS.

Where is the Ounce of Prevention?

If you will go, ladies and gentlemen, to the Boot and Shoe House of William Martin, No. 168 Federal street, Allegheny, and purchase of his manufacture of Boots and Shoes, you will have a practical demonstration of the "ounce of prevention." No one ever takes consumption that wears his boots and shoes, as they are proof against dampness and exposure, long continued. You may think that because they are so excellent therefore they are high in price. Not so. You will find that his prices are very moderate. Patronize him once and you will be satisfied with goods and prices that you will not think of buying at any other place.

Chamber Furniture.

Large Stock.
Latest Design.
Hand Made.
All New.
Prices Fair.
J. L. LYTLE & Co.,
169 Smithfield street,
Successor to T. B. Young & Co.

Attractions and Bargains.

One of the most attractive assortments of clothing and gents' furnishing goods ever placed on exhibition in this section is at the Boston Clothing House, No. 95 Smithfield street. The stock is large and includes all the latest and most fashionable garments for men's and boys' wear. The goods are equal in every respect to custom made, and are offered at prices that will astonish those who have heretofore been paying the exorbitant ones prevailing elsewhere. The assortment of spring overcoats is particularly fine, and the prices astonishing low.

Whisky

for sale, in order to close out our stock on hand. Five and six year old Pure Rye Whisky, each barrel showing by government stamp, its age. Inquire of the distillers, Jos. S. Finch & Co., 189 to 195 First avenue.

Office Desks.

We make a specialty of Office Desks, and have a large stock to select from.

J. L. LYTYE & Co.,
169 Smithfield street.

You can get your rations of Hard Tack at Marvin's Bakery, 91 and 93 Liberty St.

THE NEW ORLEANS DISASTER.

Excitement in the City—Anxiety to Hear the News—Some Fresh Particulars.

The receipt in the city last night of intelligence concerning the disaster at New Orleans—which is fully detailed elsewhere—created much excitement here among all who were acquainted with, or related to the parties from Pittsburgh, who were on board the ill-fated steamer Exporter. The first information received was that the loss of life had been very heavy, and it was supposed that a number of Pittsburghers were among the victims; later intelligence, however, somewhat lessened the force of the calamity to Pittsburgh in so far as the number of lives lost was concerned, but yet left sufficient to cause a general feeling of sadness and gloom among a large circle of friends of the sufferers, and there was the great anxiety manifested all through the night to obtain further particulars of the catastrophe.

A representative of the GAZETTE in quest of additional information, ascertained that the steamer Exporter, which was the first boat destroyed, was owned by Capt. James Rees, the well known engine builder of this city. It was a new boat, having seen but two years of service. It was built here, and then taken to ply between Cincinnati and New Orleans. It was a magnificent steamer, fitted up in superb style, and was completed and furnished at a cost of over $60,000. The boat was said to have been one of the finest passenger packets ever built here, and in Southern waters was a favorite with the traveling public, on account of beauty, elegance and speed.

The loss of the boat, however, was as nothing in comparison with the loss of life, with which the disaster was attended. Our representative called at the residence of Capt. Rees on Second avenue last night and found the family overwelmed with grief. A dispatch had been received at an earlier hour, stating that a daughter was missing, but the members of the family, hoping against hope, waited for further intelligence before giving up all expectation of more cheering news. Capt. Rees himself was at New Orleans, and shortly before midnight the news came, which dissipated further hope. The dispatch set forth that the daughter—Mrs. Musgrave—was among the lost, and was the only victim from Pittsburgh, and the agony of grief could no longer be controlled.

The lady,—whose tragic death will cause mourning wherever the family are known—was the wife of Mr. John A. Musgrave, member of Select Council, from the Seventh ward, this city. She was yet but in the morning of life, and was a lady who was held in general esteem for rare excellencies of mind and heart. About three weeks ago, in company with her father, Capt. Rees, she started on a Southern trip for pleasure and health, and it seems was about to commence the journey homewards, when the disaster occurred. Even yet, with the intelligence before them, her friends can hardly themselves to believe the terrible tidings which has brought such desolation into two homes and genuine sorrow among a large circle of friends.

AMUSEMENTS.

Pittsburgh Opera House.

Miss Western's benefit last night drew the largest house, so far, this week. She appeared in her unapproachable dual character of Lady Isabel and Madame Vine in "East Lynne." It is a fact conceded by all who know, that as an emotional actress Lucille Western has no superior on the American stage, and the part she interpreted last night affords her ample opportunity to display her ability and matchless power in that line. We have had other actresses here this winter who appeared in "East Lynne," but they gave no such intense, passionate and powerful rendition of the leading role as Miss Western did. She drew the tears last night from the eyes of more than one of her feminine auditors, none of whom every thought of the actress but only saw and heard Lady Isabel and her expressions of deep, unavailing sorrow and remorse over her great crime and grief at the death bed of her little son. Miss Western has played this character over two thousand times, and with study and care she has come to render it in a way that several have imitated but none equaled.

At the matinee this afternoon she will again appear as Nancy Sykes in "Oliver Twist," and to-night she closes her engagement by playing Margaret Rooklay in "The Child Stealer."

Trimble's Varieties.

There will be the two usual performances at this theatre to-day, one this afternoon, and the other to-night. The Zanfretta Pantomime troupe, which is the chief attraction, appearing in its specialty, "The Magic Flute," has met with the greatest success and is very popular. It, however, does not by any means make up the entire entertainment, as the programme includes other male and female artists who appear in a variety of performances.

CASH! CASH! CASH!

Cheap Dry Goods.

By our new system of retailing goods for cash we can give our customers very great advantages over merchants who still adhere to the losses and long profits of the credit system. We have just made large purchases at unusual low prices and offer our entire stock at figures that merit your attention.

Grand Spring Opening.

Notwithstanding the present cold snap it is now the time to prepare for spring. In no respect is this more true than in the matter of gentlemen's clothing. Many of our merchant tailors have on hand large stocks of last year's goods, which they will attempt to palm off on their customers for the latest styles and materials. This is not the case with T. Tobias, of big 13 Sixth (late St. Clair) street. Mr. Tobias closed out all his stock at an immense sacrifice, and has just returned from the East, where he purchased largely of all the novelties for the present and coming season. He is prepared to sell twenty-five per cent. cheaper than any other tailor in the city, and can turn out better garments than any of his neighbors. A call will convince every one that big 13 is the place to buy fashionable clothing at reasonable rates.

Water and Sewer Pipe.

Messrs. N. U. Walker & Co., whose depot and warehouse is No. 372 Penn avenue, are the most extensive manufacturers of the above line of goods in the country, and their products have a reputation for excellence and durability unsurpassed. They have in store and make to order Fire Brick of all sizes and forms, Sewer and Water Pipe, from one to thirty inches diameter, with Elbows, Branches, Curves and Traps for each size of Pipe, Chimney Flues, Ventilating Flues, Hot Air Flues, Cold Air Flues, Patent Chimneys, Lawn Vases, Flower Pots, Hanging Baskets, Statuary, Stove Linings, Grate Tiles, of all sizes; Boiler Tiles, Flue Tiles and Flooring Tiles, Common Fire Brick, Red Brick, Ground Fire Clay, Star Clay, for Crucibles and fine work; Window Caps, Sills, Brackets, Cornices, &c., of the most approved design and finish

Neat Fitting Clothes

Is what all desire who leave their measure with a merchant tailor. Frequently they are disappointed. To those who have found trouble in getting fitted, we would recommend to your patronage

WALTER ANDERSON,
No. 1 Fifth avenue, Diamond Bank Building, where you will be sure to have any garment you may order cut in the highest style of the art.

DIED SUDDENLY OF HEART DISEASE.

How common is the announcement. Thousands are suddenly swept into eternity by this fatal malady. This disease generally has its origin in impure blood filled with irritating, poisonous materials, which, circulating through the heart, irritate its delicate tissues. Though the irritation may at first be slight, producing a little palpitation or irregular action, or dull, heavy or sharp darting pains, yet by and by the disease becomes firmly seated, and inflammation, or hypertrophy, or thickening of the lining membrane or of the valves, is produced. How wise to give early attention to a case of this kind. Unnatural throbbing or pain in the region of the heart should admonish one that all is not right, and if you would preserve it from further disease, you must help it to beat rightly by the use of such a remedy as will remove the cause of the trouble. Use Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery before the disease has become too seated, and it will, by its great blood purifying and wonderful regulating properties, effect a perfect cure. It contains medicial properties which act specifically upon the tissues of the heart, bringing about a healthy action. Sold by all first-class druggists.

HEART DISEASE CURED.

ROCKPORT, Spencer co., Ind., Feb 1, 1874.
DR. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.:

About two years ago I was afflicted with a disease of the heart, which at times created a pressure around it, almost causing suffocation. I saw an advertisement of your Golden Medical Discovery, recommending the same as a cure for disease of the heart. I then bought a half-dozen bottles of it, and after using three bottles I was entirely relieved and am now enjoying good health.

Gratefully yours,
VITUS KILLIAN.

Proceedings of the Board of Health Last Night.

Dr. Donnelly made an address last night before the Board of Health, in favor of a sewer on Stevenson street. He stated that it is a necessity in order to preserve the health of the neighborhood, and desired the Board to impress upon the Street Committee the importance of recommending to Councils the passage of an ordinance for such a sewer as a sanitary measure. At the conclusion of the Doctor's remarks, Dr. Thomas offered a resolution recommending Councils to make the desired improvement and it was adopted.

Dr. Czarnieckie, the Fall Master, appeared before the Board and stated that several times he was sent for to remove the dead carcasses of horses, but when he arrived at the spot where the bodies were supposed to be lying they had disappeared, and Mr. Gray, the Health officer, refused to pay him for the trips, as he did not remove any bodies, although when he was sent after them they were there. He thought he should be paid for his trouble in going to the places. The matter was referred to the Health officer to report at the next meeting.

A colored man named Turner asked the Board to pay for bedding destroyed by the Health officer on which Turner's wife died with the small-pox. The Board adhered to its former action, refusing to pay for any destroyed bedding.

Health officer Gray reported that during the month of March six cases of small-pox and two of varioloid were admitted to the pest house, of which four died, three were discharged, and on April 1st one was still there. The entire number admitted up to April 23d was twenty-four, and twelve were there yesterday. The report was received and filed.

The resignation of Inspector John Becker, to take effect May 1st, was received and Geo. W. Bracy Jr. was elected to fill the vacancy.

Bids for printing registers, permit blanks and nuisance notices were opened as follows: A. Mathias $172.75, J. R. Weldin & Co. $175,75, Stevenson & Foster $175,80. All the bids, together with two for supplying stationery were referred to the Printing Committee.

A number of bills were ordered to be paid and the Board adjourned.

A Self-Advertising Remedy.

There are certain proprietary articles that advertise themselves. Among these are Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It may be truly said of this celebrated remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, and antidote to malaria, that the contents of every bottle is an advertisement, since its good effects so decidedly and promptly evince themselves as invariably to elicit favorable comment from those who use it. This is particularly true in rural neighborhoods invaded by chills and fever, and other types of malaria, for which it is a recognized specific. Such disorders being epidemic, the question "What is the best remedy and safeguard?" naturally presents itself to everybody in this vicinity, and is made the subject of general inquiry. A family benefited by the Bitters communicates the fact to the neighbors, who in turn become patrons of the great remedy, and proclaim its efficacy. This explains why it has become the most popular of American household medicines, and why its popularity is continually on the increase.

Ezekiel, 47th Chapter,

12th Verse.

"By the rivers upon the banks thereof shall grow all trees for meat whose leaf shall not fade, and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine." Our great Redeemer has made a provision for the cure of diseases of man and beast, yet thousands upon thousands are overtaken with sickness, without suspicion that it is caused by mercury or other subtle poisons that are so freely used in many medicines and remedies of the present day.

A WALKING MIRACLE.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—Though a stranger I want to inform you what VEGETINE has done for me.

Last Christmas Scrofula made its appearance in my system—large running ulcers appearing on me as follows: One on each of my arms, one on my thigh, which extended to the seat, one on my head, which eat into the skull bone, one on my left leg, which became so bad that two physicians came to amputate the limb, though upon consultation concluded not to do so, as my whole body was so full of Scrofula they deemed it advisable to cut the sore, which was painful beyond description, and there was a quart of matter run from this one sore.

The physicians all gave me up to die, and said they could do no more for me. Both of my legs were drawn up to my seat, and it was thought if I did get up again I would be a cripple for life.

When in this condition I saw VEGETINE advertised, and commenced taking it in March, and followed on with it until I had used sixteen bottles, and this morning I am going to plough corn, a well man. All my townmen say it is a miracle to see me round walking and working.

In conclusion I will add, when I was enduring such great suffering from that dreadful disease, Scrofula, I prayed to the Lord above to take me out of this world, but as VEGETINE has restored to me the blessings of health, I desire more than ever to live, that I may be of some service to my fellow men, and I know of no better way to aid suffering humanity, than to enclose you this statement of my case, with an earnest hope that you will publish it, and it will afford me pleasure to reply to any communication which I may receive therefrom.

I am, sir, very respectfully,
WILLIAM PAYN.
Avery, Berrien Co., Mich., July 10th, 1872.

SCROFULA.

SCROFULOUS HUMORS.

If VEGETINE will relieve pain, cleanse, purify and cure such diseases, restoring the patient to perfect health after trying different physicians, many remedies, suffering for years, is it not conclusive proof if you are a sufferer, you can be cured? Why is this medicine performing such great cures? It works in the blood, in the circulating fluid. It can truly be called the Great Blood Purifier. The great source of disease originates in the blood; and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and renovate has any just claim upon public attention. When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or climate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, the VEGETINE will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body. The conviction is, in the public mind as well as in the medical profession, that the remedies supplied by the Vegetable Kingdom are more safe, more successful, in the cure of disease, than mineral medicines. VEGETINE is composed of roots, barks and herbs. It is pleasant to take, and perfectly safe to give to an infant. In Scrofula the VEGETINE has performed wonderful cures, where many other remedies have failed, as will be seen by the following unsolicited testimonial.

SAVED MY BOY'S LIFE.

QUINCY, MASS., February 19, 1871.

MR. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—Having used your VEGETINE in my family with great success, I think it but right that you and the public should know it. Last spring my little boy was very sick indeed with inward Scrofula. The glands of the neck were very much swollen, and every one who saw him said he would not live long. He was very weak, being reduced very low. We were very anxious about him when we saw that the doctor did not help him any after five weeks' trial. Hearing of your VEGETINE, I concluded to try it, and that conclusion saved my boy's life, I sincerely believe. After taking two bottles of the VEGETINE the swelling on the neck began to discharge frightfully; but we continued to give it to him, and now the sore has healed nicely. He is as well as a child can possibly be; has a good appetite, sleeps well all night, and is good natured all day. Before taking the VEGETINE he was cross and peevish; his food did not stay on his stomach, and he did not sleep long at a time. The gratitude I owe you no pen can portray.

Yours, with respect, JOHN Q. BENT.
